CW: Grooming, Rape, Manipulation, and Lying.

On New Year's, from December 31st, 2019 to January 1st, 2020, [redacted] was raped by [redacted] current boyfriend, Logan (Ace_Logiboi). After the event occurred, Logan was sobbing and pleading guilty to these accusations, and [redacted] was too traumatized to say anything in that moment.

Person A and I were both involved in the situation and were absolutely mortified. We did not know what happened exactly; we could not believe Logan would do something like this, but I knew [redacted] would not lie about this given we were friends for 6 years.

For some reason when we woke up [redacted]s pants were unzipped... So I'm scared we did something REALLY not good. Like HOW were her pants unzipped?! I feel disgusting rn. Like I feel like throwing up just thinking about the possibility of touching her... the other thing was she woke up bleeding and it's not that time of the month... I feel like I'm gonna vomit. If I did touch her, IDK what I'd fucking do, how am I supposed to face her after something like that??

They're going to ask you who did it. Then they'll run tests to find any DNA, question you more, then if they have a name, whether from you or the DNA test, they'll find that person and take them to jail to wait for their day in court, which can be up to a month. Then sentence them. And since I used my fingers I'm sure they'll find DNA, so basically I am fucked and I'm going to jail. I just want to let you know, it's not your fault, if you decide to go to the cops. Through all of this stress though, I have remembered what happened. But I don't think you'll believe what I say.

AceLanista Today at 2:03 AM

That is the full story though, Idk what to say, but that's it... what I told you was the entire thing. With time we'll all get a resolution, but for now we have to be patient. Also, by definition I did, cause you can't consent if you're intoxicated... I hate that is the truth, but by law, I am a rapist

The official police report (the blanks are locations and names, to avoid doxxing they've been left out):

Synopsis

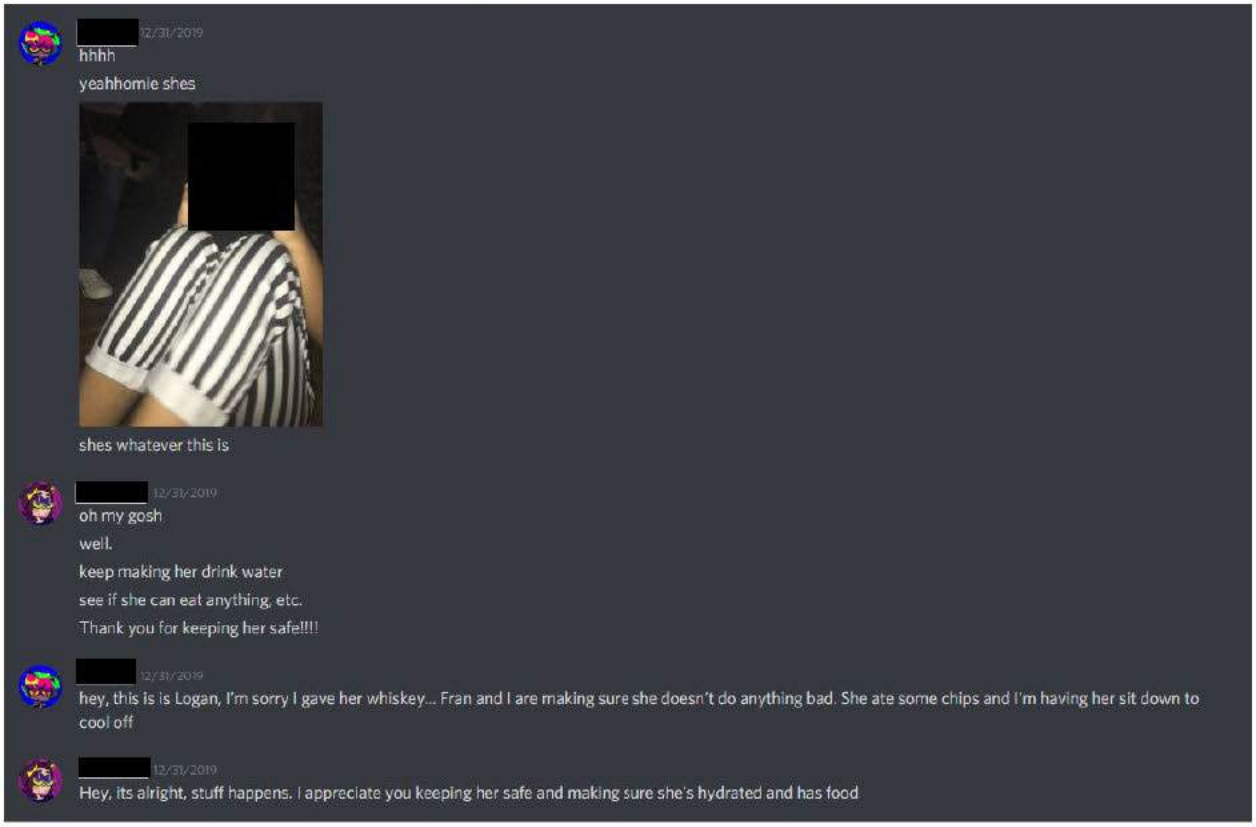
On 05/21/2020, [redacted] and I responded to [redacted] in order to conduct an interview with suspect, Logan [redacted]. Upon arrival, Logan agreed to speak with us outside.

During the interview, Logan admitted to consuming a significant amount of alcohol with victim, [redacted], and digitally penetrating her. Logan explained he used to date [redacted] and she had kissed him at midnight as it was New Year's Eve and he did not realize [redacted] was not awake when he digitally penetrated her.

For complete details, please review the recorded interview as it had been copied onto a disc and entered into Evidence, as evidence, at the [redacted]

Disposition: Case remains open; Detective to follow-up.

Not only this, but Logan, after promising [redacted] boyfriend he would keep them safe, KNOWINGLY gave them alcohol to intoxicate them to take advantage of them later that night:



[redacted] 12/31/2019
hhhh
yeahhomie shes shes whatever this is
[redacted] 12/31/2019
oh my gosh
well.
keep making her drink water
see if she can eat anything, etc.
Thank you for keeping her safe!!!!
[redacted] 12/31/2019
hey, this is is Logan, I'm sorry I gave her whiskey... Fran and I are making sure she doesn't do anything bad. She ate some chips and I'm having her sit down to cool off
[redacted] 12/31/2019
Hey, its alright, stuff happens. I appreciate you keeping her safe and making sure she's hydrated and has food

However, later that night, Person A began conspiring against [redacted] and trying to find ways to prove Logan's innocence, despite Logan himself confessing. Person A was being extremely protective over Logan because, despite being a rapist, Logan was their friend but also someone who they previously had very intense feelings for. Reflecting on the situation, I should have seen that Person A's defense was purely out of misogyny and favoritism, but in the moment - being scared and a CSA survivor myself - I let Person A skew my judgment.

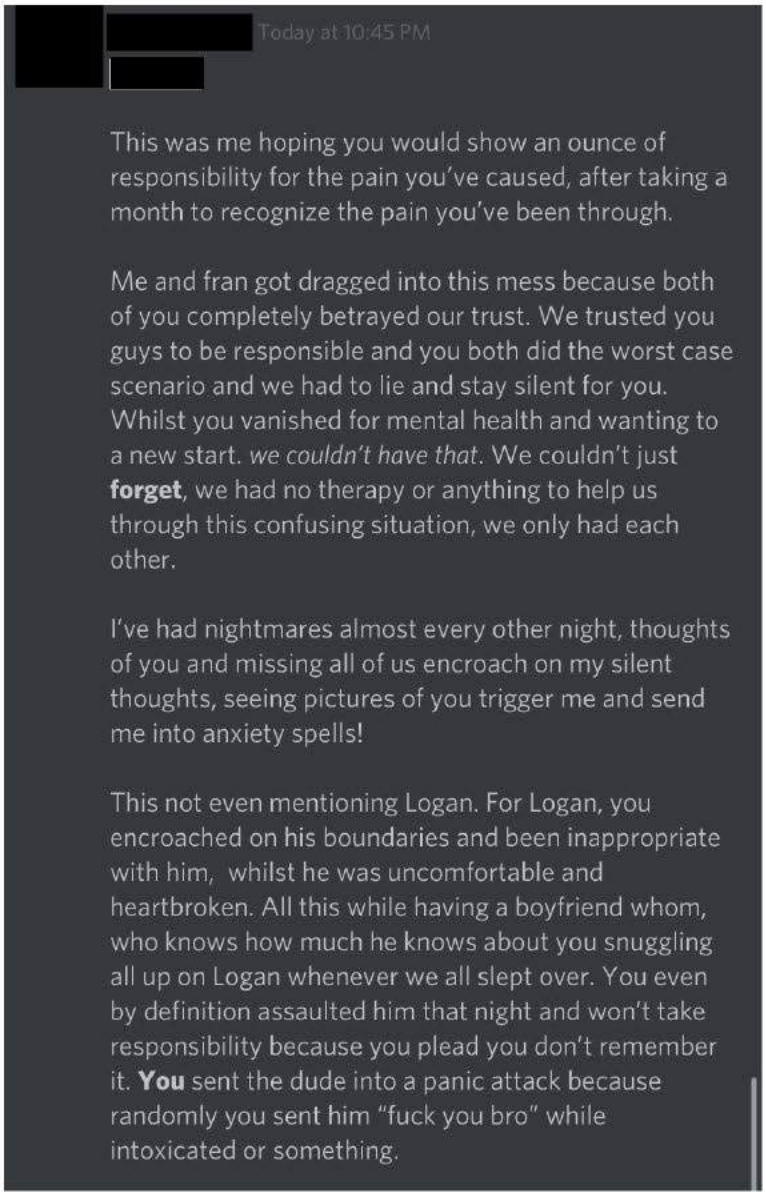
This resulted in me believing Logan's innocence for a period of time, and Person A successfully turned our entire friend group against [redacted] leaving them without friends when they needed support the most. I contributed by not believing them, which I deeply regret as I shouldn't have let myself get manipulated or convinced to abandon such a close friend.

My friend group and I are ashamed of being manipulated into not believing [redacted] initially and renounce anything we said during this time period that was invalidating. Around November was when We stand by [redacted] now, and want justice to be served. Believe victims, always.

During this period, Logan was still unmoving in his guilt and only started to defend himself after months of Person A convincing him he was innocent - even though he was not.

Evidence of Person A's confrontation with [redacted] where he victim-blamed and gaslighted about the incident:

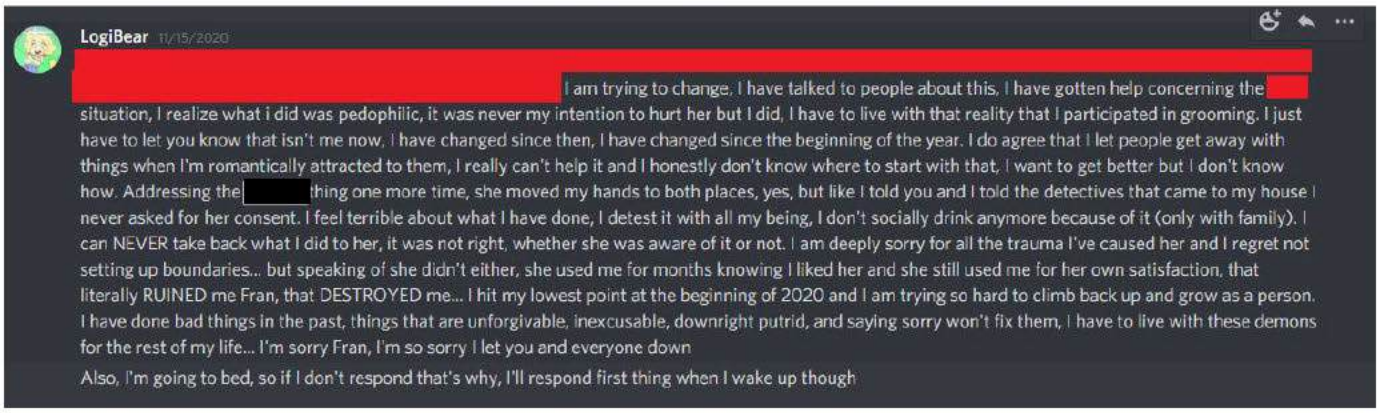


[redacted] Today at 10:45 PM
[redacted]
This was me hoping you would show an ounce of responsibility for the pain you've caused, after taking a month to recognize the pain you've been through.
Me and fran got dragged into this mess because both of you completely betrayed our trust. We trusted you guys to be responsible and you both did the worst case scenario and we had to lie and stay silent for you. Whilst you vanished for mental health and wanting to a new start. we couldn't have that. We couldn't just forget, we had no therapy or anything to help us through this confusing situation, we only had each other.
I've had nightmares almost every other night, thoughts of you and missing all of us encroach on my silent thoughts, seeing pictures of you trigger me and send me into anxiety spells!
This not even mentioning Logan. For Logan, you encroached on his boundaries and been inappropriate with him, whilst he was uncomfortable and heartbroken. All this while having a boyfriend whom, who knows how much he knows about you snuggling all up on Logan whenever we all slept over. You even by definition assaulted him that night and won't take responsibility because you plead you don't remember it. You sent the dude into a panic attack because randomly you sent him "fuck you bro" while intoxicated or something.

During this period between January 2020 and August 2020, Logan then got into contact with a minor who was 15 while he was 18 turning 19. I will refer to this minor as "Shelly" to protect their identity.

Between these months, Logan engaged in sexual conversations with Shelly and vocalized his plan to get in a relationship with her. Many people, including myself, witnessed this during calls, where he would say things such as "I'll use your pigtails as handlebars" to her, or make blatant pedophile jokes despite the fact he was actively child grooming.

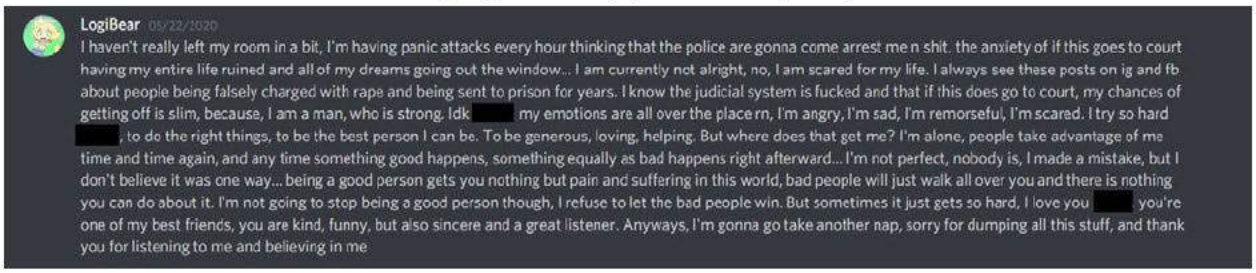
Ace_Logiboi/Logan's Confession (The first chunk of text is unrelated information, other blocks are censored to protect the victim):



LogiBear 11/15/2020
[redacted] I am trying to change. I have talked to people about this, I have gotten help concerning the [redacted] situation, I realize what i did was pedophilic, it was never my intention to hurt her but I did, I have to live with that reality that I participated in grooming. I just have to let you know that isn't me now, I have changed since then, I have changed since the beginning of the year. I do agree that I let people get away with things when I'm romantically attracted to them, I really can't help it and I honestly don't know where to start with that, I want to get better but I don't know how. Addressing the [redacted] thing one more time, she moved my hands to both places, yes, but like I told you and I told the detectives that came to my house I never asked for her consent. I feel terrible about what I have done, I detest it with all my being, I don't socially drink anymore because of it (only with family). I can NEVER take back what I did to her, it was not right, whether she was aware of it or not. I am deeply sorry for all the trauma I've caused her and I regret not setting up boundaries... but speaking of she didn't either, she used me for months knowing I liked her and she still used me for her own satisfaction, that literally RUINED me Fran, that DESTROYED me... I hit my lowest point at the beginning of 2020 and I am trying so hard to climb back up and grow as a person. I have done bad things in the past, things that are unforgivable, inexcusable, downright putrid, and saying sorry won't fix them, I have to live with these demons for the rest of my life... I'm sorry Fran, I'm so sorry I let you and everyone down
Also, I'm going to bed, so if I don't respond that's why, I'll respond first thing when I wake up though

Keep in mind, [redacted] "using" him was just displaying the same level of affection that they did with all their friends, including me. This is NEVER an excuse or justification for rape. Friendly affection is NEVER an "okay" to advance sexually onto someone.

He also vented to his minor friend, Loon, about how he was in fear for his life, and essentially guilt-tripped the people around him:



LogiBear 05/22/2020
I haven't really left my room in a bit, I'm having panic attacks every hour thinking that the police are gonna come arrest me n shit. the anxiety of if this goes to court having my entire life ruined and all of my dreams going out the window... I am currently not alright, no, I am scared for my life. I always see these posts on ig and fb about people being falsely charged with rape and being sent to prison for years. I know the judicial system is fucked and that if this does go to court, my chances of getting off is slim, because, I am a man, who is strong. Idk [redacted] my emotions are all over the place rn, I'm angry, I'm sad, I'm remorseful, I'm scared. I try so hard [redacted], to do the right things, to be the best person I can be. To be generous, loving, helping. But where does that get me? I'm alone, people take advantage of me time and time again, and any time something good happens, something equally as bad happens right afterward... I'm not perfect, nobody is, I made a mistake, but I don't believe it was one way... being a good person gets you nothing but pain and suffering in this world, bad people will just walk all over you and there is nothing you can do about it. I'm not going to stop being a good person though, I refuse to let the bad people win. But sometimes it just gets so hard, I love you [redacted] you're one of my best friends, you are kind, funny, but also sincere and a great listener. Anyways, I'm gonna go take another nap, sorry for dumping all this stuff, and thank you for listening to me and believing in me

While people in the group confronted him on it and ordered him to stop his behavior, it did not truly stop. The conversations persisted, as did the jokes, and Shelly was being groomed in front of us. Even though Person A was someone who manipulated and groomed me, I confided in them during this time to try and stop what was happening, because during this time period I was still manipulated into thinking he cared and was a good person.

The result of me voicing my concerns was, once again, blatant gaslighting and defending Logan's behavior - which he had done previously in [redacted] situation. We clashed heads a bit on it, but ultimately he once again manipulated me into silence on the matter.

As drama started resparking this year, [redacted] confronted Logan about the police report in which he actively lied to a police officer about their relationship status to deflect rape allegations. Below is proof of that confrontation:

It is important that people are made aware of the dangers of this individual. In most cases, sexual offenders and rapists are let off without consequence, and with a group protecting Logan, the odds of there being proper justice are slim. This context is very important in understanding [redacted] ([redacted]s motivations and series of pathological lies.

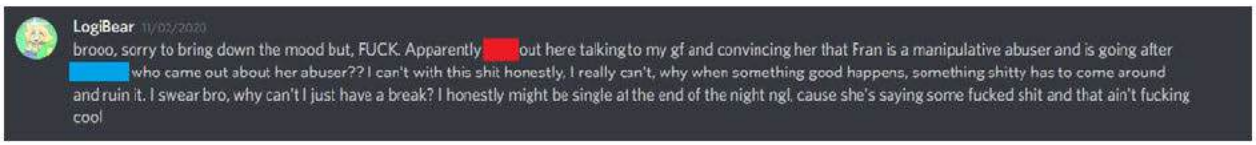
Previously, when Logan and I were still mutuals before I separated due to his actions, he was very much against [redacted] behavior toward me. He recognized what they were saying as lies, as well as that Person A was lying about the situation with me:



LogiBear 11/02/2020
brooo, sorry to bring down the mood but, FUCK. Apparently [redacted] out here talking to my gf and convincing her that Fran is a manipulative abuser and is going after [redacted] who came out about her abuser?? I can't with this shit honestly. CW: Slurs, harassment, rape, grooming, and lying.

[redacted]

My interaction with [redacted] began while I was still fighting with Person A, so they had heard fragmented pieces about them. At this time, [redacted] was also in drama with a previous friend group I had since separated from. They were accusing them of being a manipulator, a liar, an abuser, etc. Since I did not know the context and did not want to be involved, I tried speaking to both sides on the matter. [redacted] and I were on mutual terms, until Logan was introduced to the picture.

At this point in time, while I was aware of Logan's behaviors previously, I was still trying to break away from the manipulated view I had on them - so in my mind, they were still somewhat innocent, but I constantly questioned myself on it. I began receiving therapy in November/December, which not only allowed me to properly process the abuse I had witnessed and endured, but also gave me the power to come out about it now.

After [redacted] expressed they had a crush on Logan, I had given them his Instagram, just assuming they would talk and nothing more would come from it. However, it quickly spiraled from there.

They began dating within a week of meeting, and because Logan was still friends with Person A, [redacted] completely flipped and was now one of the people who were vehemently against me and suddenly friends with Person A.

Despite it hurting that [redacted] told me my abuse was invalid, that I was a liar, etc - I did not want any further drama, and simply blocked them.

However, this was not the end of things. From then on, [redacted] created alternate accounts to harass my girlfriend [redacted] when she came forward about her past abuser and rapist, Cpwpw/Puppuns/Puppuns. If you have not read that document, please read it here.

If you care about your friends , you will encourage them to get serious help when they start harming others or are toxic to others and induce trauma on others and removing yourself from someone who does those things is ENTIRELY VALID , because it is NOT ok
DO NOT support people who do those things !!!!
This is very ironic coming from the person dating Fran

It's mental and emotional too

Message...

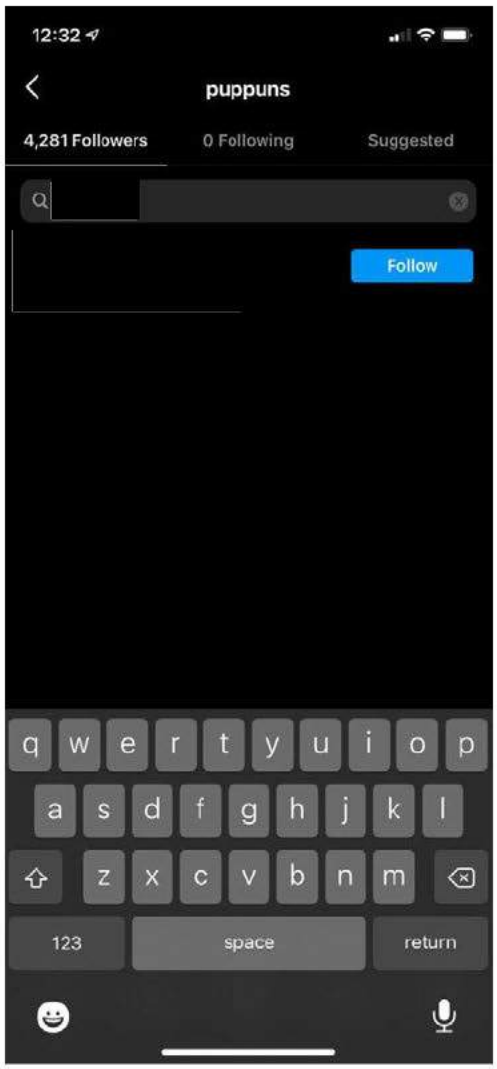
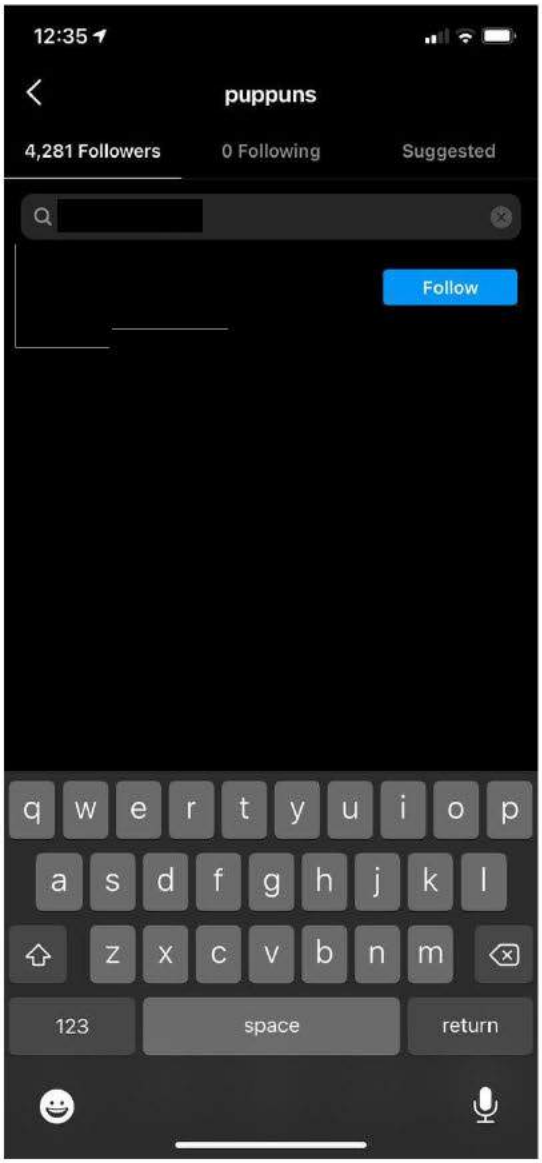
Which is true. I admit I was a problematic child when I was younger, but now I am 18. There is absolutely no reason to try and accuse me of being abusive from events that transpired at 11 years old, when Person A is actively abusive NOW as a grown adult. It is deflective.

Here is proof that [redacted] and their friend [redacted] refollowed puppuns/Cpwpw/Puppuns (a KNOWN rapist and abuser) after these events transpired. Not only do they protect them, but they also protect Logan. It is not a coincidence that these individuals knowingly protect rapists:





[redacted] knew the full story between Person A and I by this point witnessing a large majority of it herself. So, she explained to [redacted] that Person A was talking NSFW to minors and acting very predatory toward them, which is grooming. However, [redacted] took this and began slandering her as well - accusing her of lying to defend me and defending abuse, even though she was actively trying to remain neutral during the entire event between us (even though she was my girlfriend and had no reason to be unbiased, she wanted to give Person A a chance to explain his side) until she first hand saw his hypocrisy and childishness and cut the conversation off.

You cannot gatekeep someones abuse

In these screenshots, Person A was trying to explain to my girlfriend why my previous ex wasn't abusive toward me because they were a child, even though we were BOTH minors (16/14). [redacted] pointed out that his claim that I was abusive to him by that logic was hypocritical, cause I was 11 at the time it transpired. He was only trying to make claims to invalidate my abuse, but tried every way possible to keep me painted in a negative light. This was when [redacted] stopped talking to him on it, since they realized they were a huge hypocrite and mainly just trying to gaslight/invalidate another's abuse (much of which they had no grounds to voice opinions on cause they didn't witness it).

Additionally, [redacted] and their friends (some of which are d efending them now) have acknowledged the fact that [redacted] is a pathological liar; They have had interpersonal friend group drama in the past because of their abusive tendencies and lies. I do not know why people who acknowledged that and had issues with them suddenly flipped against me, knowing full well I was telling the truth, but it is not my job to unpack that.

This first started when [redacted] tried to spread rumors that I was black, then back-tracked and said I was calling myself black, which I have NEVER done. Here is evidence:

KittenSneeze 07/21/2020
Hold on a sec
[redacted] said I was black, does she think I'm mixed black??
[redacted] 07/21/2020
no she knows youre not. she straight up lied im really upset right now idk why she would do that KittenSneeze 07/21/2020
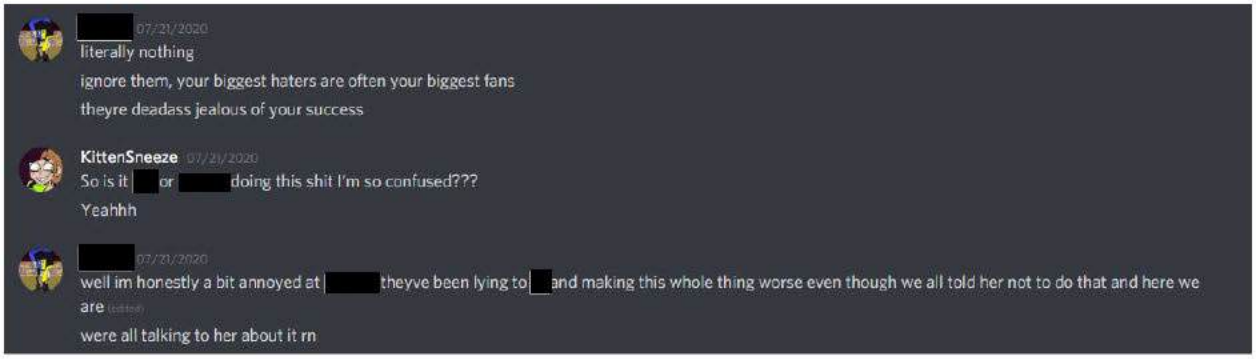
Why did she lie??
She knows I'm native right? (edited)
[redacted] 07/21/2020
yeah she does
you should message her about it because she said that she took her lying way to far and she was sorry

This was not the first instance I was made aware of their tendency to lie. One of their friends, [redacted], who had known them longer made me aware of their abusive behaviors, and there were other small interpersonal dramas where they would lie to escalate situations:



[redacted] 07/21/2020
literally nothing ignore them, your biggest haters are often your biggest fans theyre deadass jealous of your success
KittenSneeze 07/21/2020
So is it [redacted] or [redacted] doing this shit I'm so confused???
Yeahhh
[redacted] 07/21/2020
well im honestly a bit annoyed at [redacted] theyve been lying to [redacted] and making this whole thing worse even though we all told her not to do that and here we are (edited) were all talking to her about it rn

I can speak from experience of witnessing their lies, and currently being lied about, they seem to be a pathological liar; which is very dangerous when it comes to spreading rumors online to weaponize cancel culture.

Not only this, but by this time [redacted] and I had reconnected and became friends again, and when we discussed the Logan ordeal, I quickly realized how I was manipulated. [redacted] made attempts to warn [redacted] about Logan in the nicest way possible, which resulted in not only [redacted] calling them a liar, but also publicly attacking both of us on their Instagram story, calling us derogatory names, doubting that [redacted] was even black, etc. These were a series of pathological lies that continued months after.

Evidence of [redacted] attacking [redacted] and I:

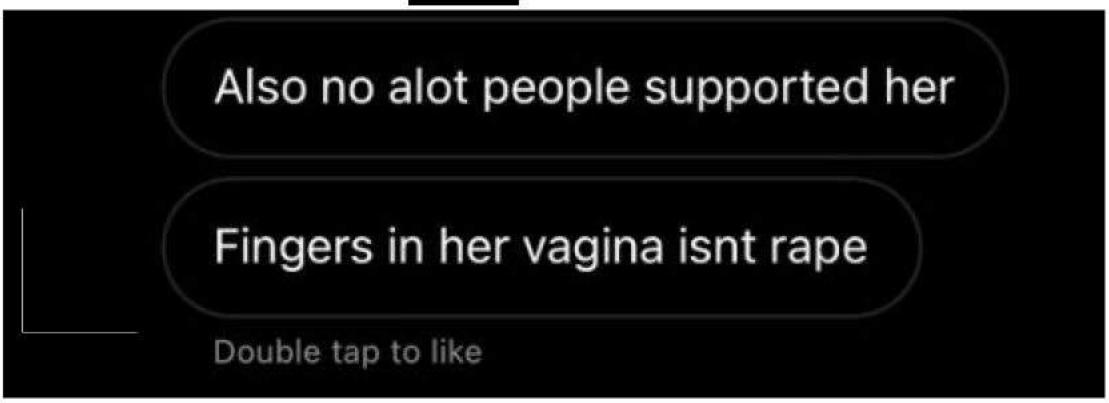
Evidence of [redacted] being a rape apologist:



From there, the situation continued to escalate and still persists even now. [redacted] has not stopped harassing and stalking my accounts, and has even called me and [redacted] current boyfriend derogatory slurs. [redacted] is NOT a lesbian and I am, they cannot reclaim the D slur, ESPECIALLY that usage of it. They also insulted [redacted] boyfriend and called him a "f*ggot", yet nobody seems to hold them accountable for their usage of slurs in a malicious way.

Evidence of [redacted] using slurs:

(The context of the first part of their tweet can be read in the Allegations section of the document. Please read, as that is a hugely important section).

Also, [redacted] was fully aware of Logan's past with rape and grooming. They defended them, attempted to gaslight me to their followers on multiple occasions, called me a "liar", and etc. However, here is evidence of Logan ADMITTING to them that I was telling the truth, and they shouldn't be defending him:

because of you and it keeps coming up in my life even when I avoid it. I messaged what I think is your father so there's no surprises. I'll find out if it is him in the morning.. I want this to go as smoothly as possible so please cooperate. You know yourself what you've been escaping...

I gotta tell you, I have not lied to my partner, at all. I have told them all the fucked shit I have done, I have told her my wrong doings to you and others. Idk why they defend it... I have asked them over and over not to defend it, but they do anyways... as you know, people come to their own conclusions and it doesn't matter what I say, this screenshot is from November 15th

Idc cause it's true, baby, I've done bad things, please don't defend them... if you're going to be with me you have to acknowledge I have done bad things in the past. I won't EVER do them again, but I have done them... Ik it's a trigger for you but it's the truth. I sent explicit messages to her, we did something that I can NEVER undo, please, recognize I did wrong, there is no defending these actions... I love you, but you have to accept these realities... also can we like, not make MORE drama, this has gone on for far too long, there is no need to bring new shit into this, this has gone on since September, it is time to move on and cut her out completely, not start even more drama... at least that's how I see it, idk, I'm at work rn so I can't think straight

After this exchange, and after attempting to settle things privately, for a while [redacted] remained in contact with [redacted] During this time, they claimed to be scared of Logan due to the rape and grooming situations:

After [redacted] began to appear to distance themselves from Logan, and sympathize with [redacted] - they suddenly sprung the idea of moving in with them out of nowhere. Keep in mind, they barely know each other, and this was the person who had previously been harassing, degrading, and stalking [redacted] not to mention ACTIVELY dating their rapist.

This is gonna sound like crazy but like do you wanna like be roommates? Im Tryna get away from my mom and i already have like a place in mind and a plan. I know that sounds like fucking crazy but you're probably the only person who is in a similar situation. It wouldnt be for long either cause my plan is im going to collage in Fall. This is like really personal but [redacted]

The blacked-out text is out of respect for their privacy.

[redacted] didn't answer this of course, cause they were already scared of their association with Logan and previous actions. During these weeks of [redacted] giving them sympathy, support, and claiming to be scared of Logan- they continued dating him. When [redacted] finally voiced to [redacted] they weren't comfortable with contact anymore, because every interaction reminded them of their sexual assault encounter - this occurred:

anyway, off topic but i wanted to say that i don't see myself talking to you anymore.. it's a constant reminder of your bf and it makes me feel disgusting to have that direct link still.. have a good night tho..
[redacted] 02/15/2021
I had one more question
I just need to know if its true or not Apparently you told fran it didn't happen
If you don't see yourself talking to me that fine but fran isnt some one whos gonna be helpful to your mental health
You are welcome to block me or what ever you feel comfortable with I'm still trying to figure it out
I see alot of myself in you sorry
[redacted] 02/15/2021
nope. always has been the truth and always will be. it happened. i'd never say it didn't bc he is a creep... i know you didn't hear that. and if you did, rumors are dangerous and obv not true lmao (edited)
[redacted] 02/15/2021
Yeah all my sources are true
I shouldn't have nightmares about my boyfriend potentially raping me because you woke up with his hand in your pants after constantly playing and touching him on your own free will
If you and Fran really believed Logan was a r*pist you wouldve immediately told me

Message @cosmicverge

In this message, [redacted] claims that I am a danger to [redacted] and won't be helpful to their mental health, which leads me to believe their sympathy was faked in order to get close to manipulating them against me. They also attempt to gaslight [redacted] about the situation and convince them that they said it didn't happen - which was never true, and I can verify as a key witness. The only time I witnessed [redacted] saying anything like that was after Person A persistently gaslighted them and denied the fact it happened, and [redacted] sarcastically remarked "oh I guess it never happened then" or something along those lines.

[redacted] has dated Logan since around October. We have been warning them about Logan since around November. We tried to warn them about Logan within the first week of them dating, only to be publicly harassed and called liars. The timeline of these events is evident earlier in this section of the document with [redacted] story posts.

[redacted] Testimony

First off, I want to say that I am not the best with writing or words in general and this is the first time I have sat down and fully explained since meeting with detectives a year ago. I will include any evidence I still have and try to explain as much as possible.

I first met Logan during a sleepover at an Airbnb with Person A, Kitten/Kittensneeze, and a few other friends in June 2019. We became friends on Discord and had a few short conversations about our similar anime and music tastes shortly after.

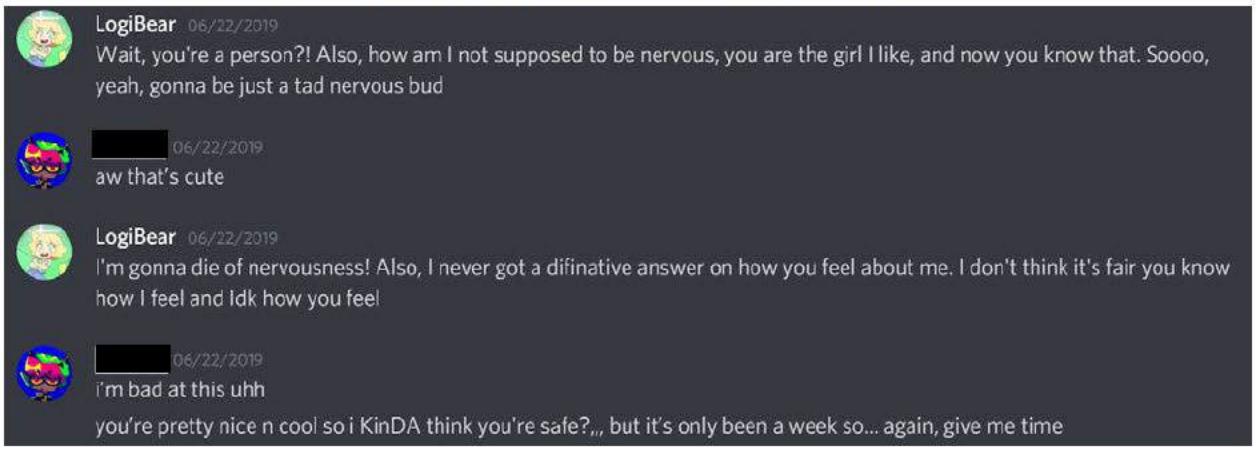
Quick question. Your profile pick, is it from nana?
[redacted] 06/16/2019
YEAH
LogiBear 06/16/2019
I thought so! I love that anime, been meaning to read the manga but haven't gotten around to it
[redacted] 06/16/2019
i love it so much uwu
LogiBear 06/16/2019
Nana is my favorite music anime by far, although komatsu is my favorite

He was very quick to show feelings towards me. Within 5 days of talking online, Logan explained his "type" of woman to me which was VERY specific (Hispanic or black, short, big boobs, tom-boyish) and made me extremely uncomfortable. I thought nothing of it and laughed it off. I let him know I was sleepy and got off for the night.

The NEXT day, on another call, he confessed he liked me "romantically"



LogiBear 06/22/2019
Wait, you're a person?! Also, how am I not supposed to be nervous, you are the girl I like, and now you know that. Soooo, yeah, gonna be just a tad nervous bud
[redacted] 06/22/2019
aw that's cute
LogiBear 06/22/2019
I'm gonna die of nervousness! Also, I never got a difinative answer on how you feel about me. I don't think it's fair you know how I feel and Idk how you feel
[redacted] 06/22/2019
i'm bad at this uhh
you're pretty nice n cool so i KinDA think you're safe?,,, but it's only been a week so... again, give me time

I should have been straightforward with my feelings and not being attracted to him physically or emotionally (since I didn't even know him well) but, I wasn't, I kept putting an answer off. By the 24th, he started saying cheesy romantic stuff so, me, being recently heartbroken, accepted the flirting and compliments. I was never used to such praise and acceptance so I felt safe even if it was too quick. We still were not in a relationship at this time.

LogiBear 06/24/2019
Shhh, you are the blessing here, I am so happy I got to meet you, it's like the stars aligned for me to meet you. I mean if one of [redacted]'s friends didn't bail I would have never gone, and if my father was actually a good father I wouldn't have gone because of father's day. I'm so thankful that you are now in my life, whether you like me or not I'll always be here for you in your time of need. You are amazing and I just want to let you know that. Now perish in embarrassment
[redacted] 06/24/2019
omg i sorry i can't even respond i'm not used to this but.,,, fuck might fuck around and cry holy shit

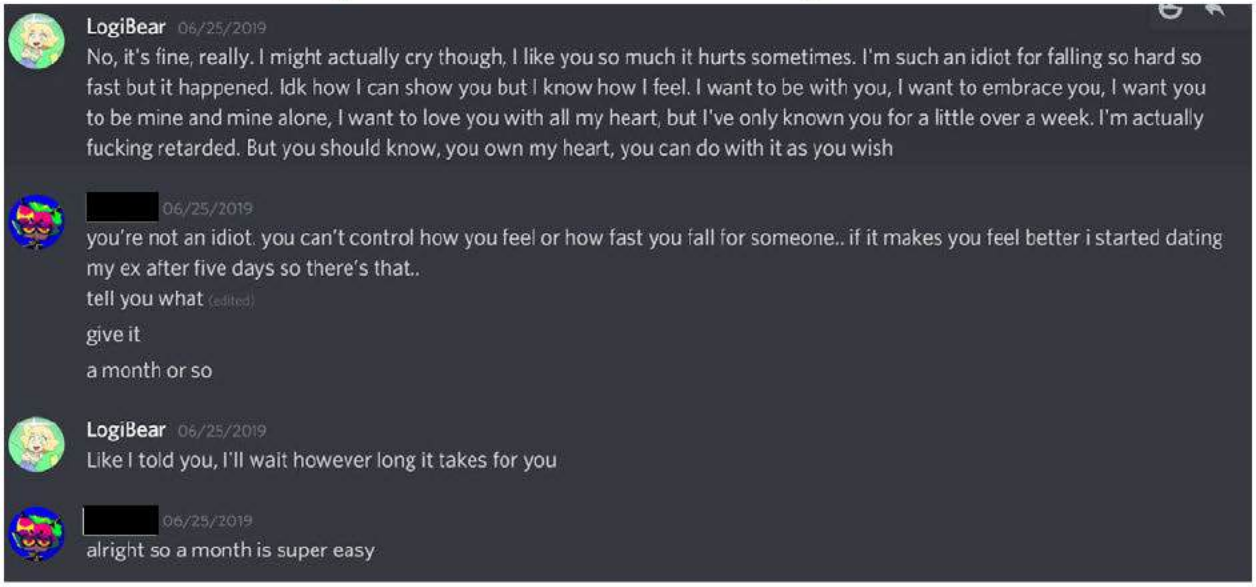
The red block of text refers to Person A.

Because I felt like I could trust him, I told him to wait a month and ask me out again. I did not want to start a relationship with someone so new after making the same mistake



LogiBear 06/25/2019
No, it's fine, really. I might actually cry though, I like you so much it hurts sometimes. I'm such an idiot for falling so hard so fast but it happened. Idk how I can show you but I know how I feel. I want to be with you, I want to embrace you, I want you to be mine and mine alone, I want to love you with all my heart, but I've only known you for a little over a week. I'm actually fucking retarded. But you should know, you own my heart, you can do with it as you wish
[redacted] 06/25/2019
you're not an idiot. you can't control how you feel or how fast you fall for someone.. if it makes you feel better i started dating my ex after five days so there's that.. tell you what (edited) give it a month or so
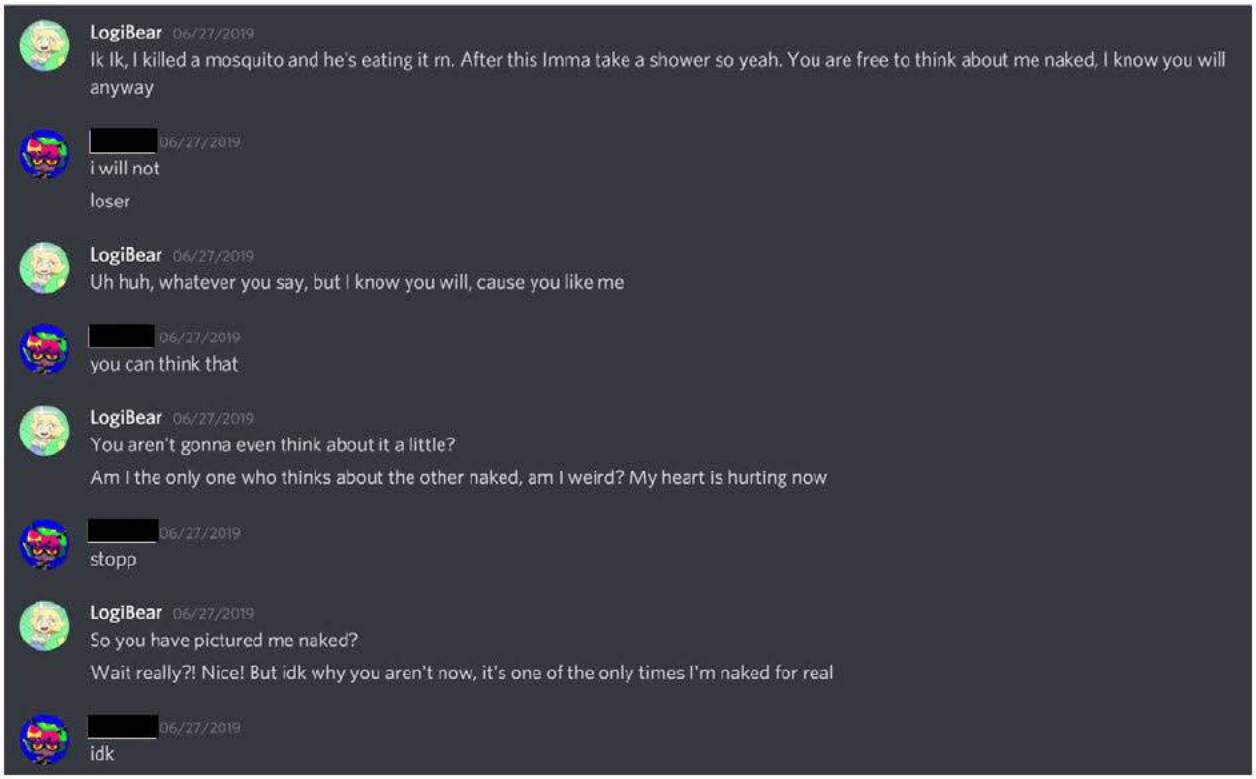
LogiBear 06/25/2019
Like I told you, I'll wait however long it takes for you
[redacted] 06/25/2019
alright so a month is super easy

Besides me feeling like things were going too fast for my comfort, I was actively crushing on my current boyfriend that Person A didn't want me to see. I still let Logan call me pet names like "baby" and treat me nicely. Which could have made him think I "belonged" to him. But we were in no way an "item".

Things started to get sexual really fast. Mostly in discord calls but, I did not know how to handle the advances so soon.



LogiBear 06/27/2019
Ik Ik, I killed a mosquito and he's eating it rn. After this Imma take a shower so yeah. You are free to think about me naked, I know you will anyway [redacted] 06/27/2019
i will not loser
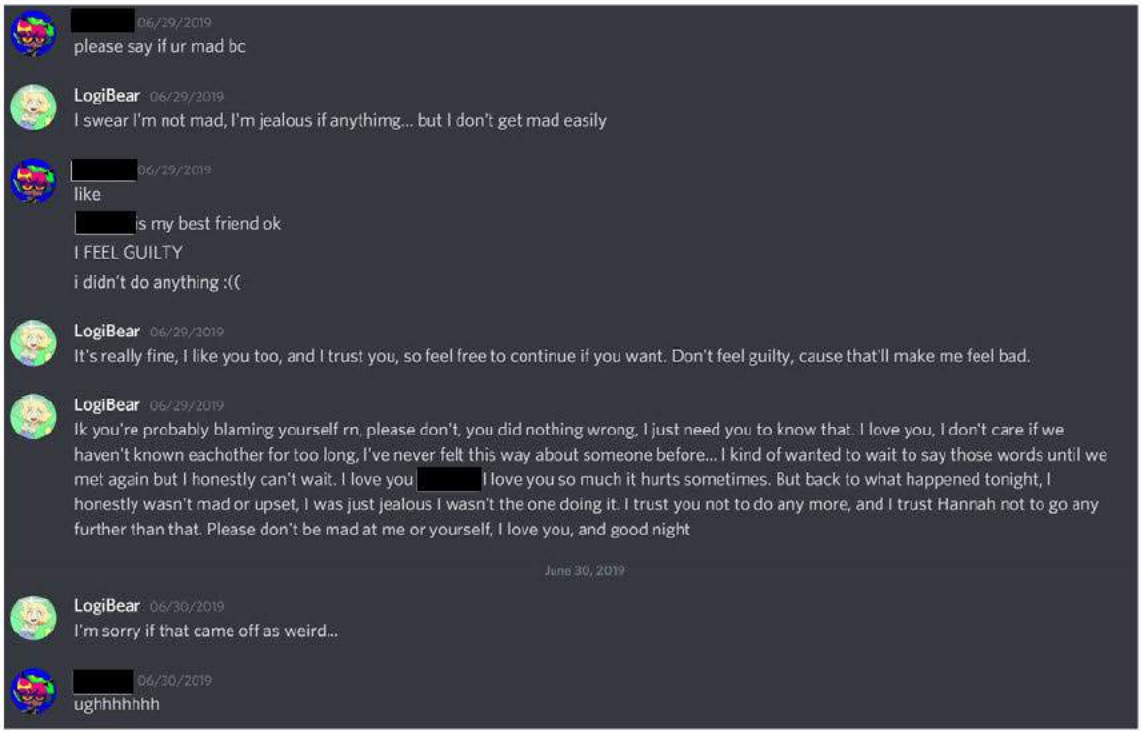
LogiBear 06/27/2019
Uh huh, whatever you say, but I know you will, cause you like me
[redacted] 06/27/2019
you can think that
LogiBear 06/27/2019
You aren't gonna even think about it a little?
Am I the only one who thinks about the other naked, am I weird? My heart is hurting now
[redacted] 06/27/2019
stopp
LogiBear 06/27/2019
So you have pictured me naked?
Wait really?! Nice! But idk why you aren't now, it's one of the only times I'm naked for real
[redacted] 06/27/2019
idk

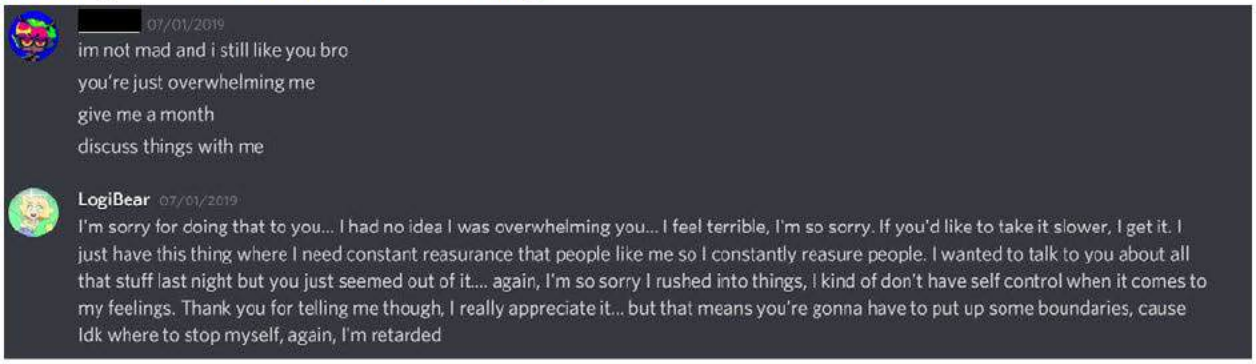
I will admit, he was still very nice despite everything happening so fast. So I never knew of any potential danger I was in.

On June 29th, My best friend, Kitten, and I kissed each other since it was Pride month and we were both single. Logan found out and told me he was jealous and immediately dropped the fact that he "loved" me. To me, this is a strong word and I did NOT feel the same or comfortable since we were not dating. Again, I ignored him and didn't tell him to stop going so fast.



[redacted] 06/29/2019
please say if ur mad bc
LogiBear 06/29/2019
I swear I'm not mad, I'm jealous if anythimg... but I don't get mad easily
[redacted] 06/29/2019
like
[redacted]s my best friend ok
I FEEL GUILTY
i didn't do anything :((
LogiBear 06/29/2019
It's really fine, I like you too, and I trust you, so feel free to continue if you want. Don't feel guilty, cause that'll make me feel bad.
LogiBear 06/29/2019
Ik you're probably blaming yourself rn, please don't, you did nothing wrong, I just need you to know that. I love you, I don't care if we haven't known eachother for too long, I've never felt this way about someone before... I kind of wanted to wait to say those words until we met again but I honestly can't wait. I love you [redacted] I love you so much it hurts sometimes. But back to what happened tonight, I honestly wasn't mad or upset, I was just jealous I wasn't the one doing it. I trust you not to do any more, and I trust Hannah not to go any further than that. Please don't be mad at me or yourself, I love you, and good night
June 30, 2019
LogiBear 06/30/2019
I'm sorry if that came off as weird...
[redacted] 06/30/2019
ughhhhhhh

After some sleep, I once again tried to set a boundary while being too nice about it, which probably caused some misunderstanding.



[redacted] 07/01/2019
im not mad and i still like you bro you're just overwhelming me give me a month
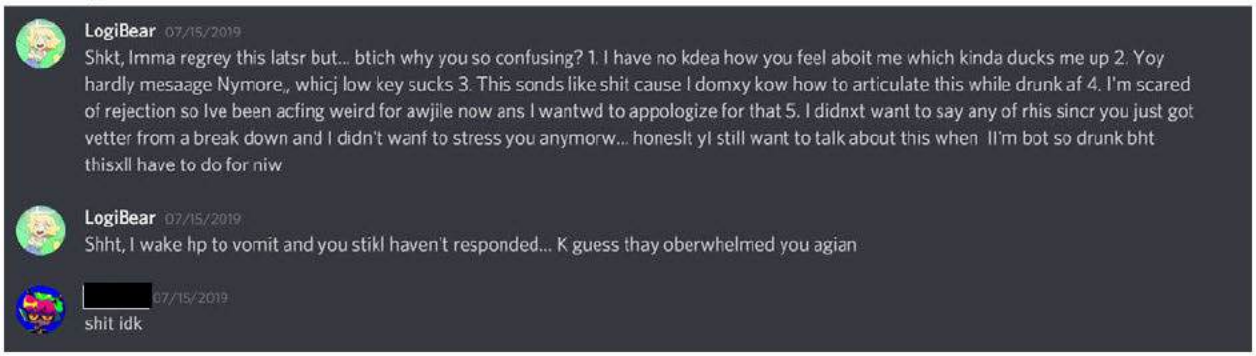
discuss things with me
LogiBear 07/01/2019
I'm sorry for doing that to you... I had no idea I was overwhelming you... I feel terrible, I'm so sorry. If you'd like to take it slower, I get it. I just have this thing where I need constant reasurance that people like me so I constantly reasure people. I wanted to talk to you about all that stuff last night but you just seemed out of it.... again, I'm so sorry I rushed into things, I kind of don't have self control when it comes to my feelings. Thank you for telling me though, I really appreciate it... but that means you're gonna have to put up some boundaries, cause Idk where to stop myself, again, I'm retarded

He always knew we never dated yet... This will be very important when it comes to the detectives he lied to after the New Year.

Some time passed, conversations became less frequent during the month. I even tried to obviously reject flirting more often. We bonded well as just friends anyway! Then, The drunk messages started.



LogiBear 07/15/2019

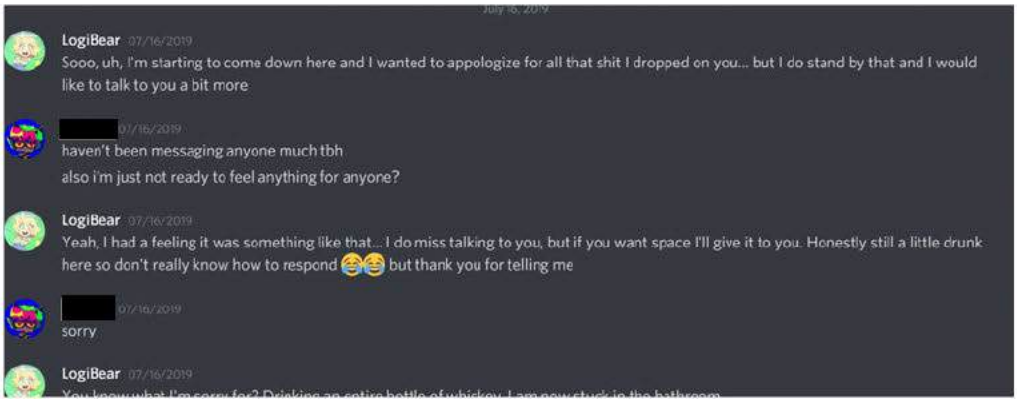
You hardly message anymore,, which lowkey sucks. 3. This sounds like shit cause I don't know how to articulate this while drunk af. 4. I'm scared of rejection so I've been acting weird for a while now and I wanted to apologize for that. 5. I didn't want to say any of this since you just got better from a breakdown and I didn't wanna stress you anymore... honestly I still want to talk about this when I'm not so drunk but this'll have to do for now.)



LogiBear 07/16/2019
Sooo, uh, I'm starting to come down here and I wanted to appologize for all that shit I dropped on you... but I do stand by that and I would like to talk to you a bit more
[redacted] 07/16/2019
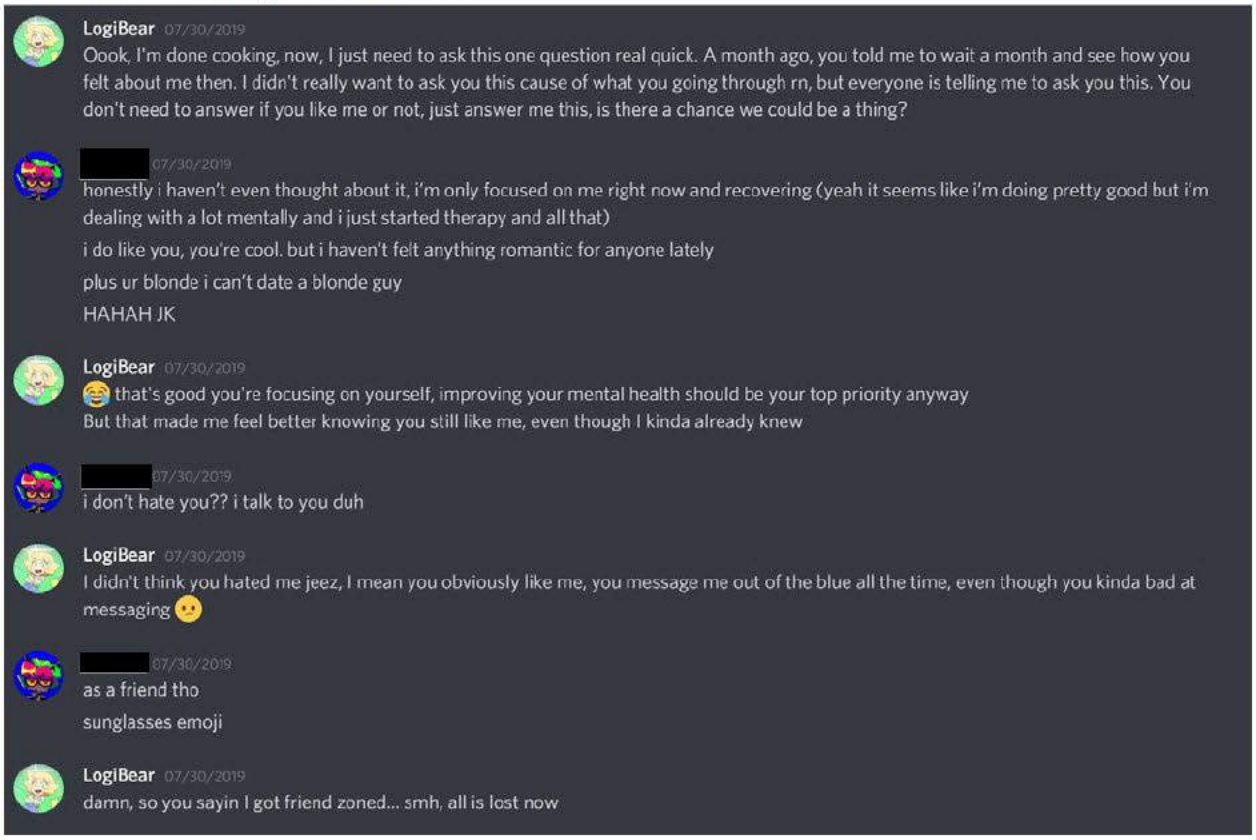
haven't been messaging anyone much tbh also i'm just not ready to feel anything for anyone?
LogiBear 07/16/2019
Yeah, I had a feeling it was something like that... I do miss talking to you, but if you want space I'll give it to you. Honestly still a little drunk here so don't really know how to respond 😂😂 but thank you for telling me
[redacted] 07/16/2019
sorry
LogiBear 07/16/2019

(Him sobered up)

Things after this died down, we had some conversations about music and talked on friend servers more often because things felt... comfortable, at least for me. The month mark was coming close and he remembered what I said and followed through. I let him know I wasn't into him romantically and all was well.



LogiBear 07/30/2019
Oook, I'm done cooking, now, I just need to ask this one question real quick. A month ago, you told me to wait a month and see how you felt about me then. I didn't really want to ask you this cause of what you going through rn, but everyone is telling me to ask you this. You don't need to answer if you like me or not, just answer me this, is there a chance we could be a thing?

[redacted] 07/30/2019
honestly i haven't even thought about it, i'm only focused on me right now and recovering (yeah it seems like i'm doing pretty good but i'm dealing with a lot mentally and i just started therapy and all that) i do like you, you're cool. but i haven't felt anything romantic for anyone lately plus ur blonde i can't date a blonde guy
HAHAH JK

LogiBear 07/30/2019
😂 that's good you're focusing on yourself, improving your mental health should be your top priority anyway
But that made me feel better knowing you still like me, even though I kinda already knew

[redacted] 07/30/2019
i don't hate you?? i talk to you duh

LogiBear 07/30/2019

LogiBear 07/31/2019
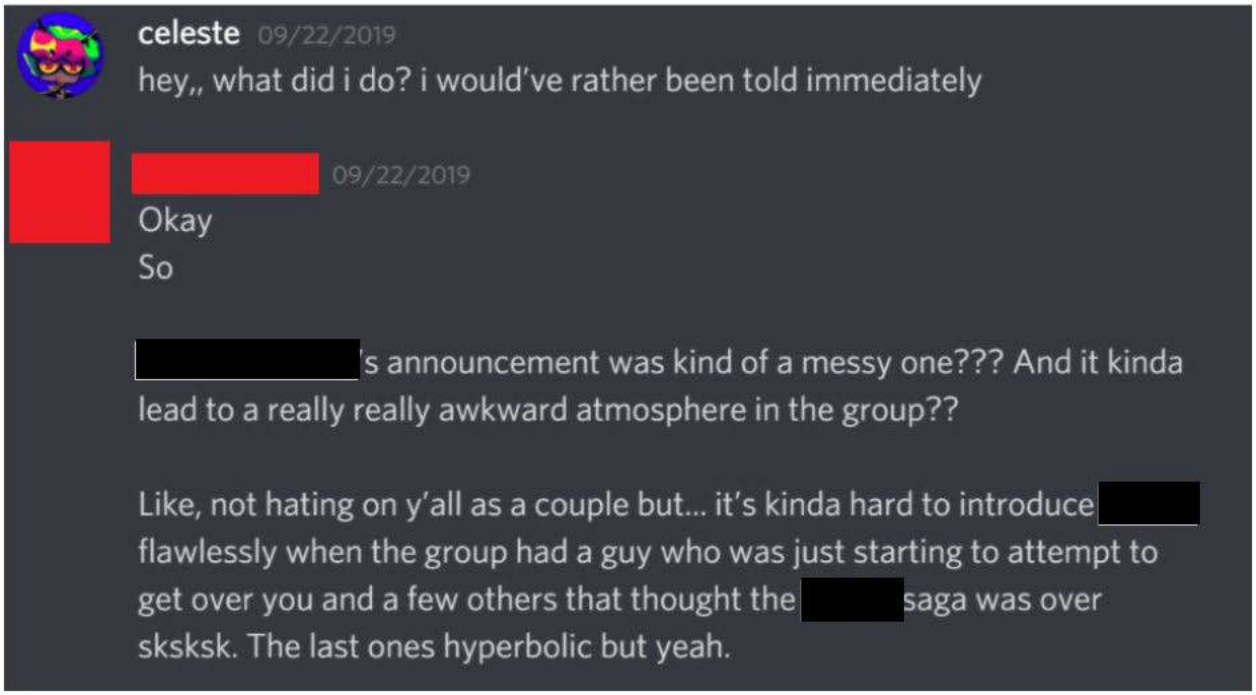
anyways, I'm gonna let you know what's been going on on the sims life. Soooooooooo, Logan and [redacted] started to flirt and they are a couple, I made the house a 3 bedroom house and I upgraded all the appliances... BUT SOMEHOW YOUR CHARACTER IS UNCOMOFORTABLE WITH THE $2000 BED THAT I BOUGHT

Around this time, my boyfriend and I were having a deep conversation about how we never really stopped caring for each other and were practically dating. So, we ended up somehow official. We kept quiet for a bit since Person A especially wouldn't be too fond of me rejecting his close friend and dating someone else but decided to break it to everyone. The friend group became quiet and I felt like there was some talking behind the scenes so I went ahead and asked:



celeste 09/22/2019
hey,, what did i do? i would've rather been told immediately
[redacted] 09/22/2019
Okay
So
[redacted]'s announcement was kind of a messy one??? And it kinda lead to a really really awkward atmosphere in the group??
Like, not hating on y'all as a couple but... it's kinda hard to introduce [redacted] flawlessly when the group had a guy who was just starting to attempt to get over you and a few others that thought the [redacted] saga was over sksksk. The last ones hyperbolic but yeah.

The red block of text is Person A.

The [redacted] saga" refers to me dating him years ago and breaking up due to distance and immaturity. While I understand getting with someone else might have made Logan sad, I am in no way responsible for his feelings when it comes to this. I have the choice of being in a relationship with whoever I choose in the end.

For the time in between this and New Year's, see my boyfriend's statement below which explains Logan's excessive touching and interactions with him.

I had gone to a New Year's Eve party with my best friend Kitten, Person A, [redacted] and some others; the party was at a friend of Person A's apartment. After the party, we left for Person A's residence where we were staying for the night and I took my medications prior to going to sleep. All of my friends were aware of my medication and me, Kitten and Logan, had gone to sleep in the living room on recliners. At the time, I was taking Prozac and hydroxyzine for anxiety and depression and had been on them for the past year. I usually took them around 1am/ midnight, but did not know what time I took one that night. I had consumed some whiskey mixed with coke if I remember correctly, but wasn't as drunk as I had been in the past. I was still falling over a bit and socializing with ease which means I was considerably drunk. Within 10 minutes of taking the Prozac, I was asleep. Prozac causes drowsiness and I can be very sensitive to medications of that nature. I was wearing a t-shirt, no bra, striped pants that were high waist with a long zipper to sleep. We went to sleep on a 2 person recliner and Logan went next to me. I was pretty tired and not quite sober yet so I ended up draping over the full seat. me, Kitten, Logan, Person A, his cousin, his sister and his parents were in the residence, but me, Kitten, and Logan were the only ones in the living room.

(Kitten: I can verify this is the truth. I had stayed up for a good while talking to Logan that night, as I was having a panic attack and couldn't really sleep. Logan talked with me for a few hours and I eventually fell asleep around 7am when the sun was coming up. At this time, Logan was no longer drunk. Even if there was any alcohol in his system still, he was not too inebriated to speak to me rationally. Between the time I fell asleep at 7am and 9am, Logan raped [redacted] I was woken up by [redacted] whispering to me that they were leaving (their boyfriend was picking them up after the incident) and once I wasn't too groggy, I sat up and looked across from Logan. His face was red, he was holding a pillow, and it looked like he was crying. When I asked him what he did, he was trembling and said something along the lines of, "I did something really bad" or "I messed up".)

I woke up to a sharp pain inside of me. When I woke up, my pants were partially down, and Logan had his finger in me. I tried to say "what" when I noticed so he would get it out or stop without a fight but he did not respond, he just groaned, visibly awake. When I became more alert, I tried to make it clear I was awake and he made another noise, retracted his fingers, and did what I can only describe as passing out. I quickly got off the recliner and made my way to the bathroom as I was scared, Logan saw I was spooked and he told me he needed to talk to me. From me waking up, to me going to the bathroom, only a few minutes had passed. He messaged me on Discord asking if I was okay and when I came out, said we needed to talk. We went outside and Logan asked if I remembered and then grabbed his head and had a moment with himself. He began to cry and repeat “no” which was really scary to see. Logan told me he would just text me and he messaged me this:

LogiBear 01/01/2020
So, I've been wanting to say this for awhile now and after last night I think now is the time. You most likely know I still like you, or have had a little suspicion maybe, but I do. I don't want to, I want to be your friend but I just can't stop liking you for some reason. Yesterday I was down because of the whole "pass out" thing... I know it's dumb but it upset me... as much as I like petting you and all, it just makes me sad that you aren't actually mine... I know you don't like me that way, but I can't help but like you. Idk what else to say, I'm still a tad drunk so this probably didn't make any sense, anyways, I'm going back to bed cause I have to sober up.

I then called my boyfriend a few times to wake him up, and messaged him:

[redacted] 01/01/2020
goood morning i need to call you when i'm alone
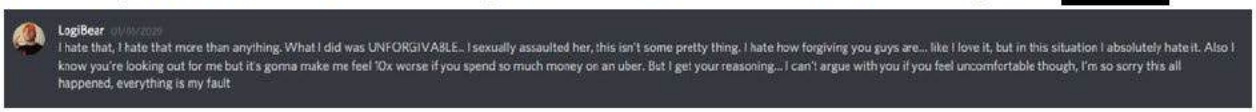
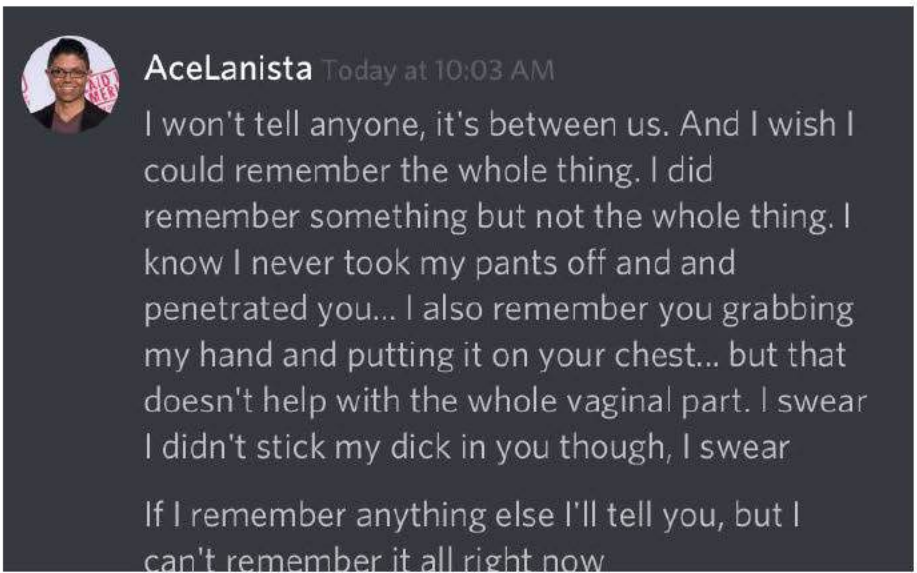
[redacted] 01/01/2020
or like message u asap
[redacted] 01/01/2020
Hey
[redacted] 01/01/2020
i do not feel comfortable around logan
i woke up briefly last night to his hands all up in my clothes and i'm in pain down there like
and he won't tell me what happened

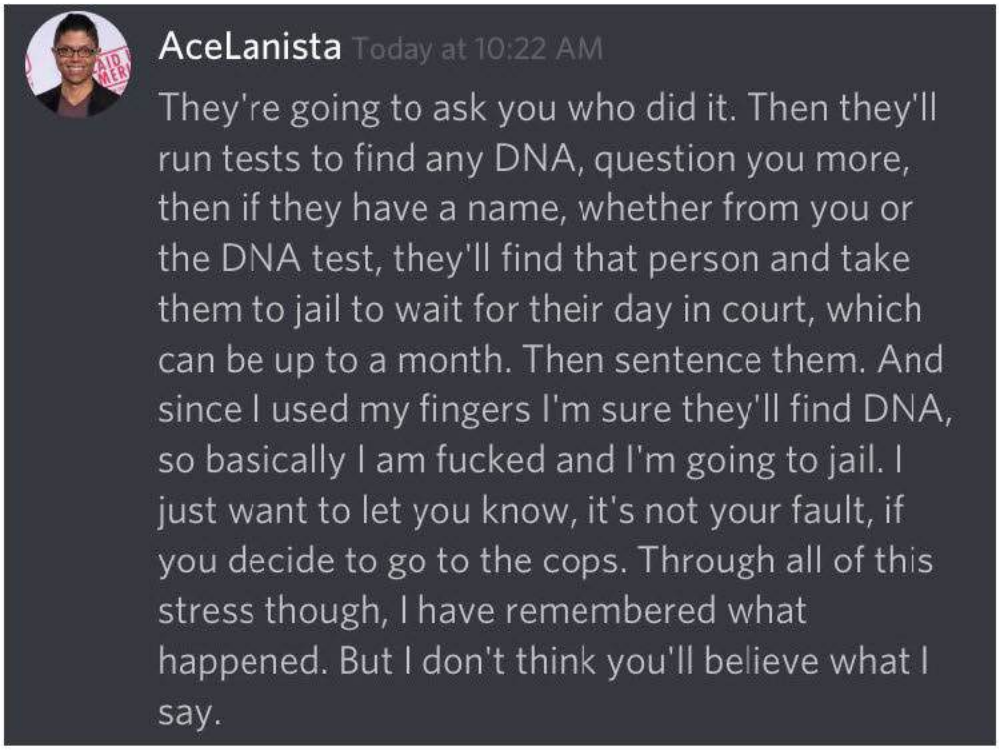
He picked me up and I explained what I could once I was safe and away. That same day, Person A wanted to talk as a group about what happened. Stating I would, "Have to break it to Logan," and made it appear as if I had done something; he told Logan as if he didn't know and Logan needed to forgive himself. Bottom line, I was asleep, I don't know what happened and Logan admitted to not even checking. Through discord, days later, Logan had told me that I grabbed his hand and through all the stress, some memory returned in which he remembered.
(These top two screenshots are of Logan to Kitten, the bottom are from Logan to [redacted]



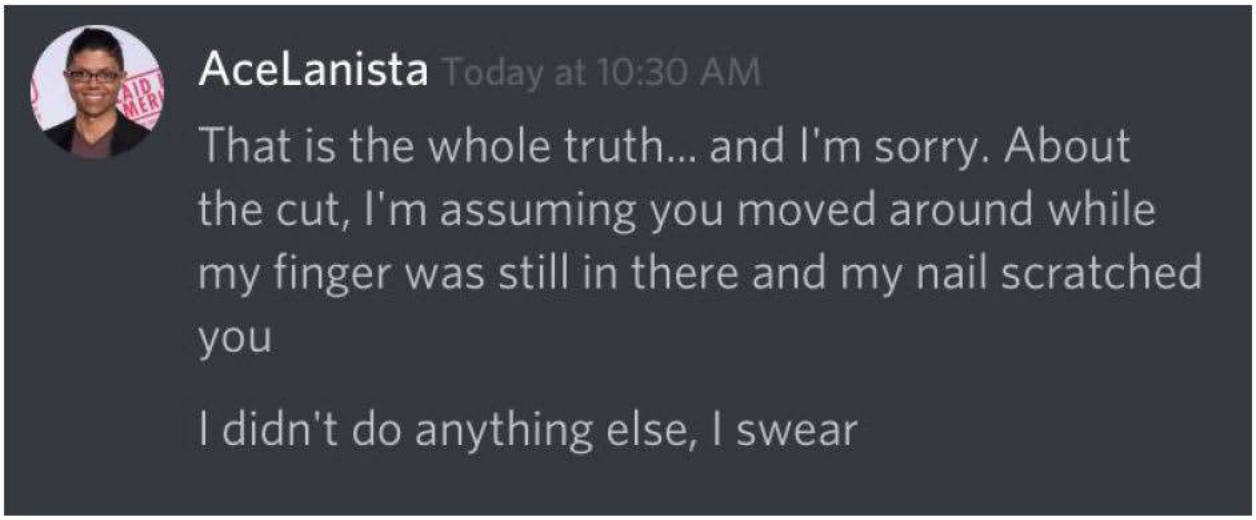
LogiBear
I hate that, I hate that more than anything. What I did was UNFORGIVABLE.. I sexually assaulted her, this isn't some pretty thing. I hate how forgiving you guys are... like I love it, but in this situation I absolutely hate it. Also I know you're looking out for me but it's gonna make me feel 10x worse if you spend so much money on an uber. But I get your reasoning... I can't argue with you if you feel uncomfortable though, I'm so sorry this all happened, everything is my fault



AceLanista Today at 10:03 AM
I won't tell anyone, it's between us. And I wish I could remember the whole thing. I did remember something but not the whole thing. I know I never took my pants off and and penetrated you... I also remember you grabbing my hand and putting it on your chest... but that doesn't help with the whole vaginal part. I swear I didn't stick my dick in you though, I swear
If I remember anything else I'll tell you, but I can't remember it all right now



AceLanista Today at 10:22 AM
They're going to ask you who did it. Then they'll run tests to find any DNA, question you more, then if they have a name, whether from you or the DNA test, they'll find that person and take them to jail to wait for their day in court, which can be up to a month. Then sentence them. And since I used my fingers I'm sure they'll find DNA, so basically I am fucked and I'm going to jail. I just want to let you know, it's not your fault, if you decide to go to the cops. Through all of this stress though, I have remembered what happened. But I don't think you'll believe what I say.

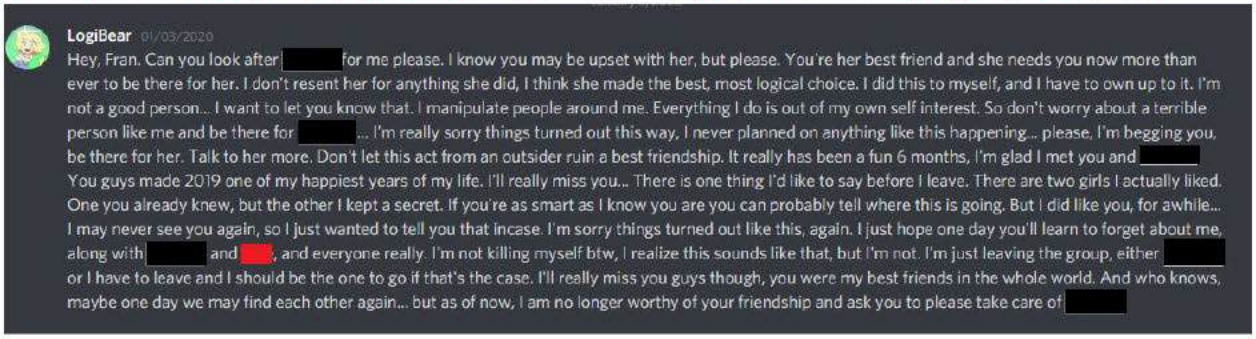


AceLanista Today at 10:30 AM
That is the whole truth... and I'm sorry. About the cut, I'm assuming you moved around while my finger was still in there and my nail scratched you
I didn't do anything else, I swear

I went on to get medically examined and since I was a minor, police showed up to the hospital and advised I open a case. He then lied to a detective saying we dated in the past, which I proved to be untrue.

(Physically involved meaning I kissed Kitten in June 2019)
I never made him think we were "dating" or that I was "his". He has begun to even gaslight me at this point. Even if we did date, that does not excuse the overstepping boundaries, jealousy, and literal rape that occurred. I treated him like a friend and he treated me like an item.

Kitten: Additionally to [redacted] testimony, Logan texted me this 3 days after the rape occured. It caused a lot of distress, especially in him confessing a crush after raping my best friend.



LogiBear 01/03/2020

Hey, Fran. Can you look after [redacted] for me please. I know you may be upset with her, but please. You're her best friend and she needs you now more than ever to be there for her. I don't resent her for anything she did, I think she made the best, most logical choice. I did this to myself, and I have to own up to it. I'm not a good person... I want to let you know that. I manipulate people around me. Everything I do is out of my own self interest. So don't worry about a terrible person like me and be there for [redacted]... I'm really sorry things turned out this way, I never planned on anything like this happening... please, I'm begging you, be there for her. Talk to her more. Don't let this act from an outsider ruin a best friendship. It really has been a fun 6 months, I'm glad I met you and [redacted] You guys made 2019 one of my happiest years of my life. I'll really miss you... There is one thing I'd like to say before I leave. There are two girls I actually liked. One you already knew, but the other I kept a secret. If you're as smart as I know you are you can probably tell where this is going. But I did like you, for awhile... I may never see you again, so I just wanted to tell you that incase. I'm sorry things turned out like this, again. I just hope one day you'll learn to forget about me, along with [redacted] and [redacted], and everyone really. I'm not killing myself btw, I realize this sounds like that, but I'm not. I'm just leaving the group, either [redacted] or I have to leave and I should be the one to go if that's the case. I'll really miss you guys though, you were my best friends in the whole world. And who knows, maybe one day we may find each other again... but as of now, I am no longer worthy of your friendship and ask you to please take care of [redacted]

Synopsis

On 05/21/2020, Detective S. Ghosio and I responded to [redacted] in order to conduct an interview with suspect, Logan [redacted] Upon arrival, Logan agreed to speak with us outside.

During the interview, Logan admitted to consuming a significant amount of alcohol with victim, , and digitally penetrating her. Logan explained he used to date and she had kissed him at midnight as it was New Year's Eve and he did not realize was not awake when he digitally penetrated her.

For complete details, please review the recorded interview as it had been copied onto a disc and entered into Evidence, as evidence, at the Sheriff's Administration Building (SAB), [redacted] FL.

Disposition: Case remains open; Detective to follow-up.

we never dated????
I asked you out and you said yes sooo, I'm pretty sure that means we dated, it might not have been for long but I'm not lying, unless you forgot
LOL I SAID GIMME A MONTH YOU LIED TO POLICE
I THEN FRIENDZONED YOU. AND YOU GOT DEPRESSED
No, I asked you out after that, about 2 or 3 weeks and you said it could be official. Then you went to the thing cause of your mental health and started talking to Tadhg again and then friendzoned me, that is literally what happened

Now, [redacted] was never there and will never understand the full scope of things. Even reading this, they can't get the full picture. Even I don't. Part of me wishes I was awake during the assault so I could fight back or tell Logan off. But, I wasn't. Either way, [redacted] has gotten many, many lies from other, unknown sources and has accused me of cheating on my boyfriend, assaulting Logan, and spreading lies. I have gotten many, many voice messages on instagram from them insulting me, calling me a whore, calling my boyfriend the F slur and saying he needs to "come out of the closet", and invalidating my rape simply because they just don't believe me. I will not be sharing these voice recordings because I'm not really sure if I should. [redacted] has apologized for attacking me already, so I am not too worried.

Person A and [redacted] both believe that what Logan did does not classify as sexual assault.

(Right is Person A to someone else. Logan's boundaries being pushed means me rejecting him and still treating him as a friend instead of completely cutting him off. He constantly initiated inappropriate touching when I was in a relationship and after the incident with me, did more inappropriate things to other people. He has a history of this.)

[redacted] Boyfriend Testimony

Full disclosure, this part of the doc is going to be very heavy. This part will be explaining the series of events from me meeting Logan, him gaining my trust, to him sexually assaulting my partner.

My personal experience with [redacted] is very limited. However, Their boyfriend, Logan, is someone I've had multiple personally uncomfortable and absolutely horrible experiences with. Since I had first met him, Logan has been a man who displays incel tendencies through his objectification of women, and constant lying. I made the mistake of ignoring these red flags which would culminate in the intoxication and rape of my Partner.

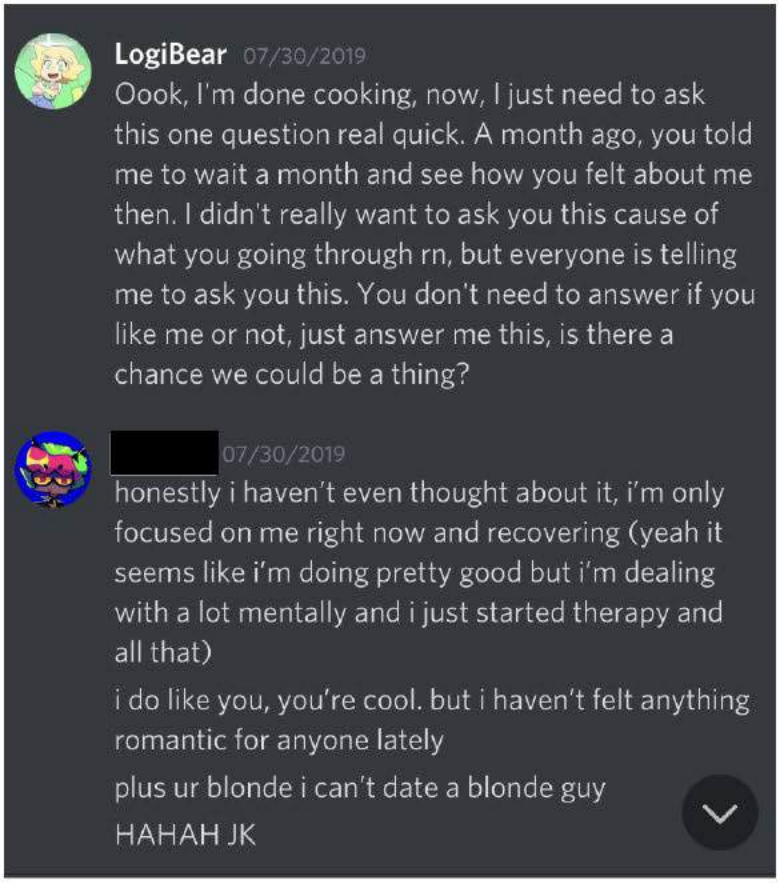
Oh and [redacted] we wanna get to the mall around 4 and [redacted] isn't able to make it ;0; so it's you, Logan, me, and my cousin [redacted]

Red block of text is Person A, the black blocks of text are to protect the privacy of their friends.

I had first met Logan in early 2019 through [redacted] at the time friend group I was recently reconnecting with. I was taking Person A to the mall to meet up with Logan, where upon meeting him and only knowing him for about an hour I learned a few things. First, Logan does not treat women as people, but as a goal to be had. Upon meeting him for the very first time, he went on a rant about how much he struggled to talk to them, and how he tries so hard to be a nice guy. Second, and most importantly going forward, Logan used to like my partner, [redacted] a lot. To the extent that he attempted to ask them out multiple times, all of which were met with direct rejection. The most recent rejection (the third one) occurred only about a week before I had met up with him at the mall, and a day before [redacted] and I got back together. As far as I know, Logan wasn't aware that we had started dating at this time, and I wasn't about to tell him mid-rant.



LogiBear 07/30/2019
Oook, I'm done cooking, now, I just need to ask this one question real quick. A month ago, you told me to wait a month and see how you felt about me then. I didn't really want to ask you this cause of what you going through rn, but everyone is telling me to ask you this. You don't need to answer if you like me or not, just answer me this, is there a chance we could be a thing?
[redacted] 07/30/2019
honestly i haven't even thought about it, i'm only focused on me right now and recovering (yeah it seems like i'm doing pretty good but i'm dealing with a lot mentally and i just started therapy and all that)

We continued to talk in a few group chats, the main one being a few friends planning a surprise party for Kitten. We were gathering resources to get an Airbnb where all of us could stay together for the night. By the time of the party, Logan was aware that [redacted] and I were dating, and he was very, very weird about it. He would constantly tell me how lucky I was, while at the same time, continuing to hit on and make strange remarks to [redacted] in private. He hated the fact that [redacted] and I were sharing a bed. After the party I began to receive occasional messages from [redacted] expressing their discomfort of being around Logan while I wasn't around. From now until New Years I wasn't able to see [redacted] due to Person A deeming it "not appropriate" because it made Logan uncomfortable, and they were all part of a friend group that always met together. I wasn't able to ever set a boundary with Logan, but I didn't think I had to worry, and that was the biggest mistake of my life. Below is a series of messages I received from [redacted] dating from the Airbnb in August until New Year's Eve.

On New Year's Eve, [redacted] was partying with the friend group that I wasn't "allowed" to interact with (still because of Logan's feelings). Logan gave [redacted] Whiskey and they got very drunk from it, to the point where typing and talking were difficult, whereas Logan was more than able to both text and talk to me on discord and on the phone. Logan texted me that night, updating me on [redacted] situation acknowledging that they were insanely drunk, and admitting that they gave them whiskey. Around the time New Year hit I was called by [redacted] who was near impossible to understand, Logan then took the phone. Logan promised me that he would keep [redacted] safe, that he was giving them water and making sure that nothing would happen that night, assuring me that I could stay home and that I didn't need to drive over. I trusted him, and I went to bed.

[redacted] 12/31/2019
hey, this is is Logan, I'm sorry I gave her whiskey... Fran and I are making sure she doesn't do anything bad. She ate some chips and I'm having her sit down to cool off

Hey
[redacted] 01/01/2020
i do not feel comfortable around logan
i woke up briefly last night to his hands all up in my clothes and i'm in pain down there like
and he won't tell me what happened

The next morning I woke up from [redacted] calling me multiple times. They were in tears, asking me to pick them up as soon as possible, which I did. Once they were safe at my home they told me everything they could in the moment. They woke up with Logan under them, he was using his fingers to assault them in their sleep. Logan had raped [redacted] and I couldn't do anything about it. I ignored the red flags, I trusted Logan, and now there is a permanent stain on [redacted] life and our relationship that will be next to impossible to ever ignore. Below are multiple screenshots of discord messages from Logan that show him admitting to raping [redacted] and being afraid of the consequences.

I could write about this situation for a while, but that isn't what this is about right now. What matters here, is that [redacted] knows this, all of this. We've told them about their boyfriend's actions, they've pretended to sympathize with us about it. Yet [redacted] is still dating him. Furthermore, [redacted] now twists the narrative to say that [redacted] willingly did things with Logan (despite being aware of the above screenshots) and that they're just trying to get out cheating with me. For all the support they give online to victims, for how much they push for justice, they're continually dating a known rapist, and continue to blame the victim.

Person A

CW: Grooming, Rape, Manipulation, and Lying.

This event started back in September when I separated from someone who I am going to keep Anonymous for my own safety - for the sake of this document, I will refer to them as "Person A".

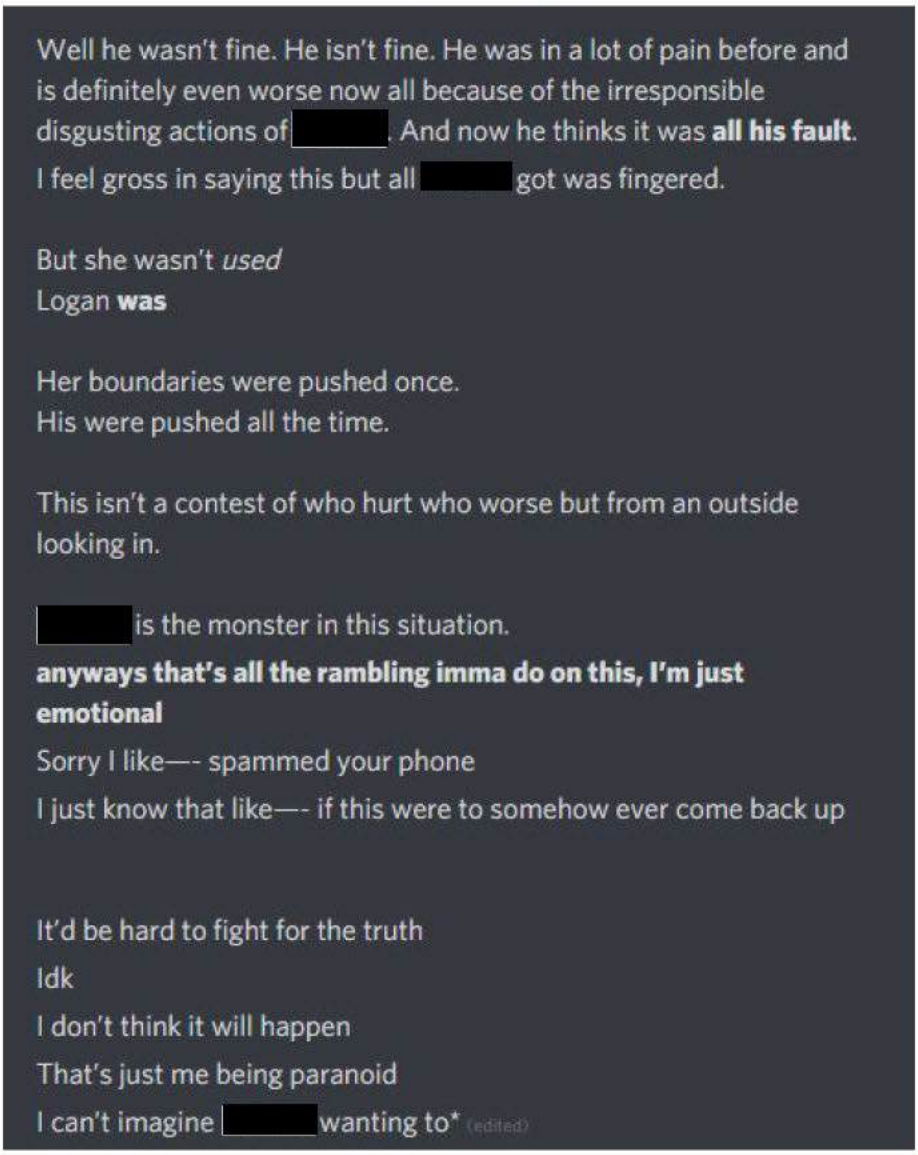
Person A was a long-standing friend of mine who, after years of trauma and abuse at their hand, I was lashing out at frequently. They had dumped their sexual experiences on me from a very young age, discussed NSFW topics in front of minors, and drew NSFW art of me nonconsensually on multiple occasions where I was still a minor. In addition, any confrontation I had with them regarding their behavior was met with extreme levels of psychological manipulation and gaslighting, which resulted in me breaking down at any attempt to stand up for myself. I am currently in therapy and receiving treatment for C-PTSD as a result of these encounters.

If you have seen the previous threads and bewares, you may connect the dots as to who they are - but I cannot confirm any identities at this time. I do not wish to create public controversy with this individual because they are a danger to my friends and I.

Person A claims that I was their abuser, because I "verbally degraded" them - when any instance of such was simply me calling him out on his abuse, and him denying it and getting angry.

A lot of these instances of his perceived abuse was when I called attention to Logan's dangerous behavior. As an adult, I was seeking advice and help from my adult friend, who I viewed as my sibling. Instead, they always gaslighted the claims, minimized them, or victim-blamed. Here is evidence of this occurring.

Person A defending Logan, minimizing [redacted] experience, and completely defending rape:



Well he wasn't fine. He isn't fine. He was in a lot of pain before and is definitely even worse now all because of the irresponsible disgusting actions of [redacted]. And now he thinks it was all his fault.
I feel gross in saying this but all [redacted] got was fingered.

But she wasn't used Logan was

Her boundaries were pushed once.
His were pushed all the time.

This isn't a contest of who hurt who worse but from an outside looking in.

[redacted] is the monster in this situation.
anyways that's all the rambling imma do on this, I'm just emotional Sorry I like—- spammed your phone
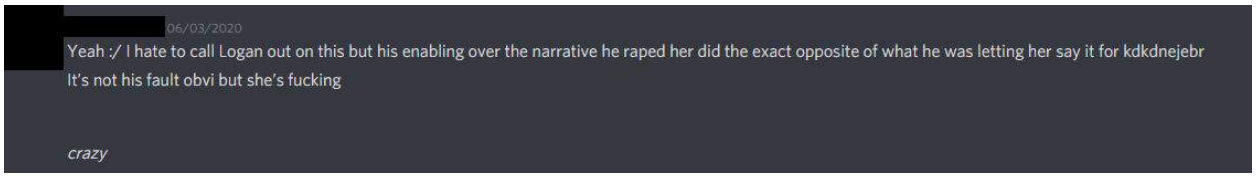
I just know that like—- if this were to somehow ever come back up

It'd be hard to fight for the truth
Idk
I don't think it will happen
That's just me being paranoid
I can't imagine [redacted] wanting to* (edited)

Person A gaslighting [redacted] completely when they came forward about Logan:



[redacted] 06/03/2020
Yeah :/ I hate to call Logan out on this but his enabling over the narrative he raped her did the exact opposite of what he was letting her say it for kdkdnejebr
It's not his fault obvi but she's fucking crazy

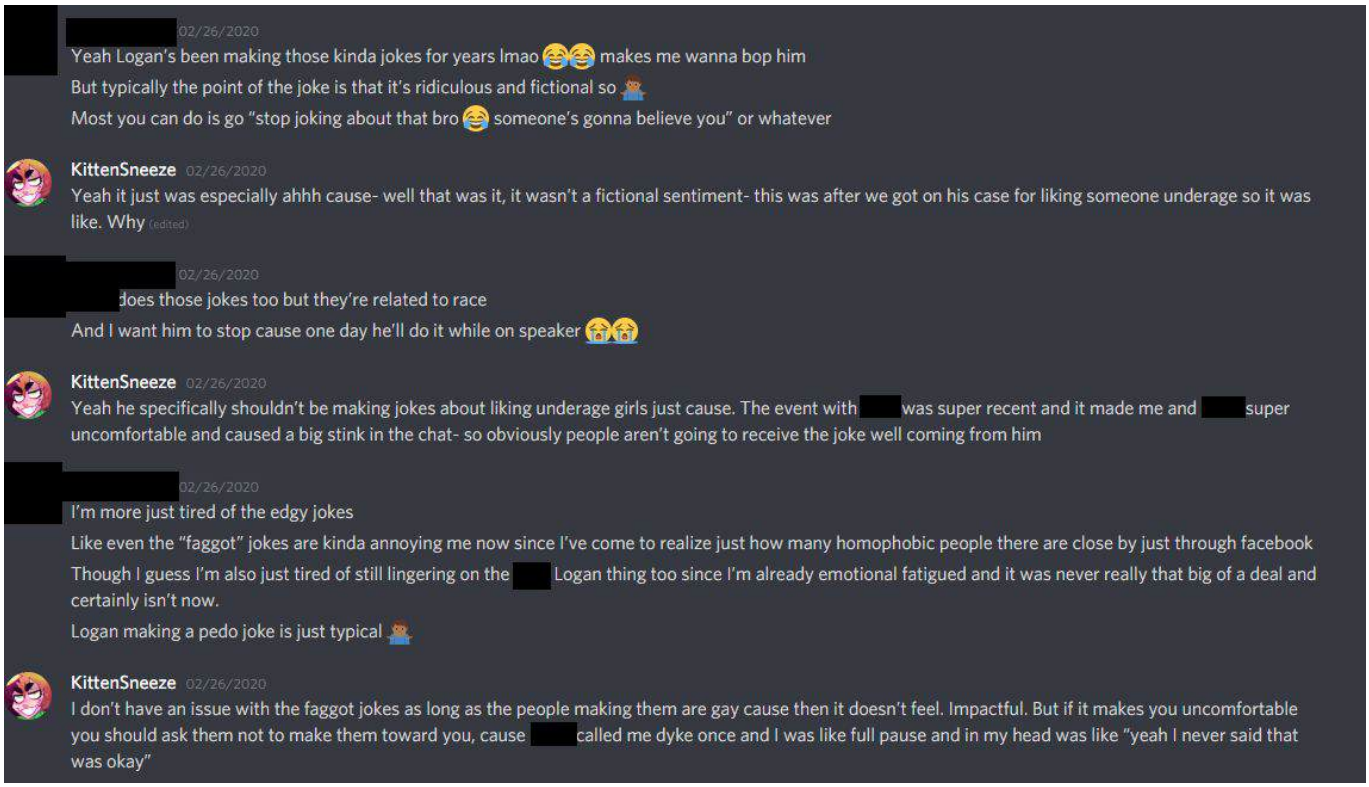
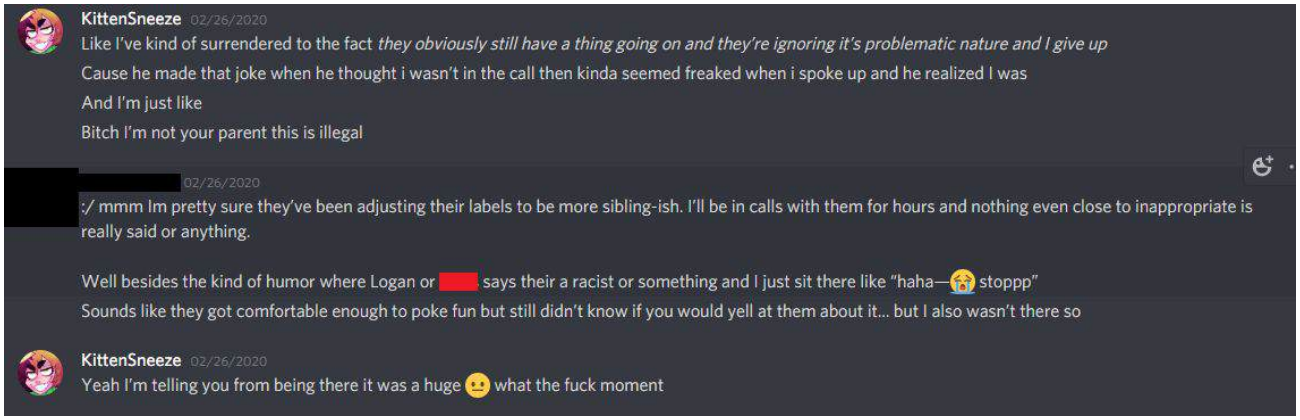
Person A gaslighting me about Shelly's grooming, once again protecting Logan's behavior:



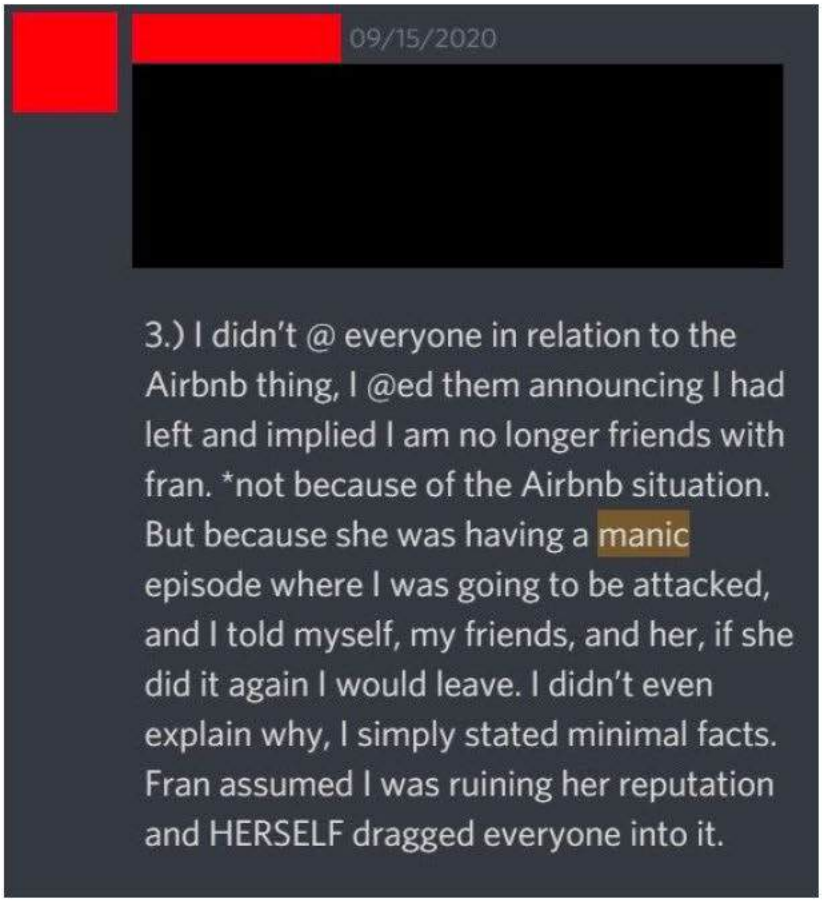
[redacted] 02/26/2020
Yeah Logan's been making those kinda jokes for years lmao 😂😂 makes me wanna bop him
But typically the point of the joke is that it's ridiculous and fictional so 🤦🏾
Most you can do is go "stop joking about that bro 😂 someone's gonna believe you" or whatever
KittenSneeze 02/26/2020
Yeah it just was especially ahhh cause- well that was it, it wasn't a fictional sentiment- this was after we got on his case for liking someone underage so it was like. Why (edited)
[redacted] 02/26/2020
does those jokes too but they're related to race
And I want him to stop cause one day he'll do it while on speaker 😭😭
KittenSneeze 02/26/2020
Yeah he specifically shouldn't be making jokes about liking underage girls just cause. The event with [redacted] was super recent and it made me and [redacted] super uncomfortable and caused a big stink in the chat- so obviously people aren't going to receive the joke well coming from him
[redacted] 02/26/2020
I'm more just tired of the edgy jokes
Like even the "faggot" jokes are kinda annoying me now since I've come to realize just how many homophobic people there are close by just through facebook
Though I guess I'm also just tired of still lingering on the [redacted] Logan thing too since I'm already emotional fatigued and it was never really that big of a deal and certainly isn't now.
Logan making a pedo joke is just typical 🤦🏾
KittenSneeze 02/26/2020
I don't have an issue with the faggot jokes as long as the people making them are gay cause then it doesn't feel. Impactful. But if it makes you uncomfortable you should ask them not to make them toward you, cause [redacted] called me dyke once and I was like full pause and in my head was like "yeah I never said that was okay"



KittenSneeze 02/26/2020
Like I've kind of surrendered to the fact they obviously still have a thing going on and they're ignoring it's problematic nature and I give up
Cause he made that joke when he thought i wasn't in the call then kinda seemed freaked when i spoke up and he realized I was
And I'm just like
Bitch I'm not your parent this is illegal
[redacted] 02/26/2020
:/ mmm Im pretty sure they've been adjusting their labels to be more sibling-ish. I'll be in calls with them for hours and nothing even close to inappropriate is really said or anything.
Well besides the kind of humor where Logan or [redacted] says their a racist or something and I just sit there like "haha—😭 stoppp"
Sounds like they got comfortable enough to poke fun but still didn't know if you would yell at them about it... but I also wasn't there so
KittenSneeze 02/26/2020
Yeah I'm telling you from being there it was a huge 😐 what the fuck moment

This had happened on multiple occasions, where Person A would make me seem like I was overreacting or burdening because I pointed out problematic behaviors among others in the group. It was worse if I had to try and call attention to Person A's problematic behavior. Not to mention, there is acknowledgment here the racist jokes LARGELY stemmed from Logan ([redacted] boyfriend) and Person A's boyfriend.

Person A contacting my friends to tell them I was manic or crazy after I confronted him for his behavior and cut him off:

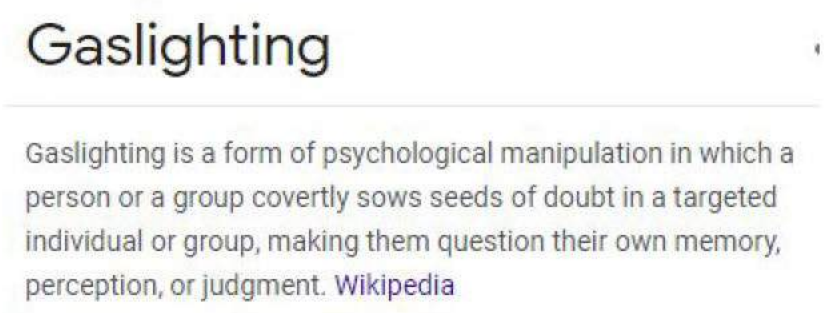


09/15/2020
3.) I didn't @ everyone in relation to the Airbnb thing, I @ed them announcing I had left and implied I am no longer friends with fran. *not because of the Airbnb situation. But because she was having a manic episode where I was going to be attacked, and I told myself, my friends, and her, if she did it again I would leave. I didn't even explain why, I simply stated minimal facts. Fran assumed I was ruining her reputation and HERSELF dragged everyone into it.

The black text is from discussing the interpersonal server drama, which I will keep private.

Keep in mind, I have NO mental disorder that would induce "mania". I was upset at the time, but I was not experiencing a "manic episode" and implying so just because I was angry at their lying is ABLEISM and GASLIGHTING. Their goal was to convince my friends that I was insane in some capacity and the abuse I experienced wasn't valid. They flipped the story to make it seem like I was terrified of my reputation being ruined, which is a disgusting thing to insinuate is wrong when being actively gaslighted to your friends with the goal to leave you because they think you're crazy and abusive.

Here is the definition for gaslighting:



Gaslighting
Gaslighting is a form of psychological manipulation in which a person or a group covertly sows seeds of doubt in a targeted individual or group, making them question their own memory, perception, or judgment. Wikipedia

Person A has a long-standing history of behaving and abusing me in the most abhorrent ways. For example, I'd often leave groups and servers and ask for space after I was triggered by something he did. I didn't want to angrily lash out, and I didn't feel comfortable, so I asked for space. However, when I left, he and my other "friends" would openly mock me and make fun of me for needing time to cool off away from someone who had been verbally degrading toward me and I didn't feel comfortable sharing a server with them at the moment:

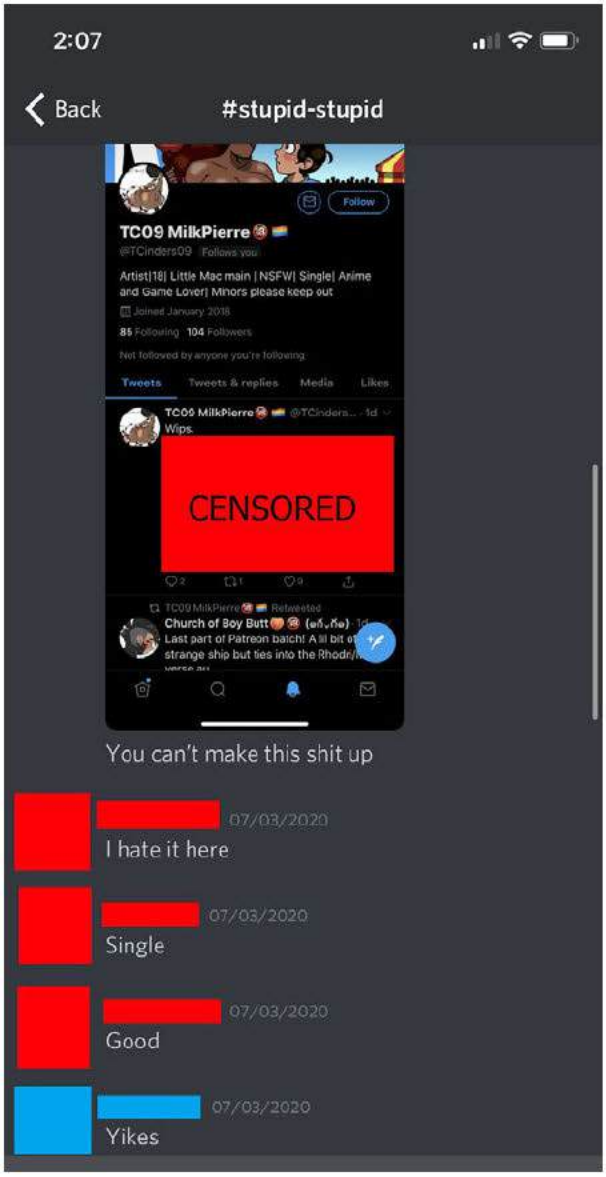
Up

Not only does he completely negate the fact he was caught manipulating my friends and making fun of me behind my back, but his first instinct was to make the person who held him accountable get the "full fucking brunt of his rage". He also BLATANTLY disrespected my boundaries throughout our entire friendship, and he's seen here saying that the idea of me needing space and being firm in that boundary was a "gross idea".

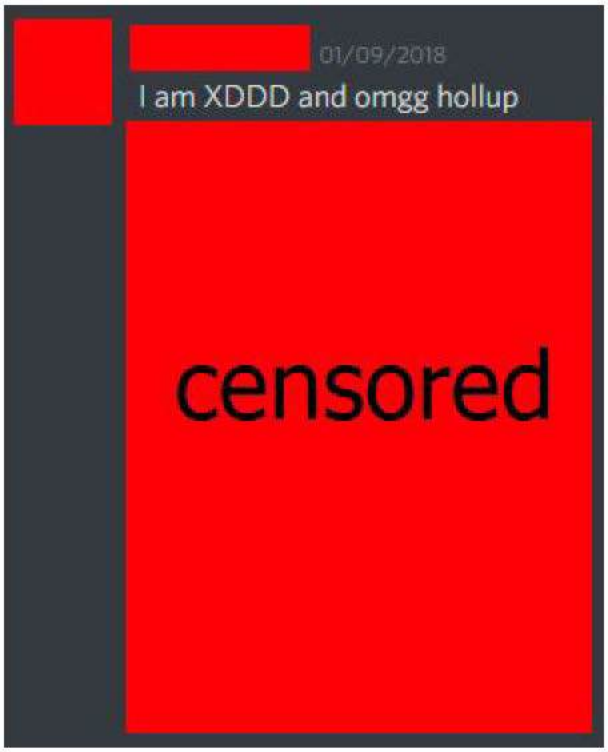
Sexual Misconduct

As stated previously, Person A also often talked sexually or sent sexual content into a server with minors - including myself at the time. Even though there were private NSFW channels within the server, he often sent links to porn in the public channels that minors could see.



I have censored the art since it was explicit. The names blocked out in red are adults, the blue blocked out name was one of the minors responding.

Here is more evidence of this unwarranted sexual behavior. All images have been censored so I do not expose NSFW content to minors or any unconsenting parties.



Much of the censored content I cannot share was nonconsensual images of NSFW situations of my persona, some from as young as 15 years old. Person A has always been 2 years older than me, and when he turned 18, he continued drawing NSFW of me non-consensually (even if I said "yes", a minor couldn't consent to an adult), and also my other minor friends.

Separation from Person A

By September 2020, I had officially severed ties with Person A in a very heated, nasty way. After years of bottled up anger at the manipulation, grooming, villainizing of me, and trauma - I could no longer speak to them cordially. Of course, I will apologize in any instance where I say mean things, because I only ever want to speak to people with cordiality - but at this point, I could not manage more than to tell him he was taking a huge toll on my mental health and I was always trying to get away from him - which is true. I was being mean, I was lashing out at him - I don't believe in that behavior in any situation - but I also do not believe I deserved to be abused for nearly a decade.

However, after ties were cut, Person A publicly announced on our old server he was leaving because of me, and then proceeded to hop into our friends' DMs to convince them to leave me or hate me. I did not know what to do besides go into the server, send screenshots, and explain what led up to me finally going off and cutting him off - which was another instance of him gaslighting me and others.

People who witnessed it first-hand confirmed that was true, and those who were not involved just respected our decision to part ways but politely asked not to be involved.

However, Person A was angered that people were not taking his side or that they simply did not want to be involved - so he began accusing me of manipulating people away from him, even though that was exactly what he was attempting to do and failing at.

After he felt betrayed by his old friend group (even though they were still his friend, they just wanted to hold him accountable for his behavior), he connected with a group of his minor fans. In this server, he began dumping details of our past history, manipulating or lying about contexts and evidence to make them hate me. He was once again preying upon people who either looked up to him or who were minors to enable his behavior, and sending them to white-knight on his behalf.

I will not be listing the names of the minors or his fans who were involved in this situation and contribute to sharing around my allegations, as I do not carry ANY negative feelings towards these individuals. They are simply doing what they feel is right, which is valid and respectable. That's why I wanted to get all the evidence together to release this document. I do ask that anyone who only saw their side to continue reading this full document - as there is a lot to address but EVERYTHING will be covered.

Testimony- "Z"

CW: Manipulation and Lying.

This is a testimony from someone who witnessed the events between Person A and I go down, and has been a mutual of ours for a few years.

On more than one occasion, Person A had attempted to manipulate me in my DMs. I no longer have these DMs, as they were extremely triggering to me, and I deleted them as soon as I could.

The first instance of manipulation was during a bad fallout, where both Person A and Kitten had come to me for help. I spent my time going between DMs, recalling how Person A kept deflecting and talking in a condescending manner. As a kid growing up in a manipulative environment, I would like to believe I can spot textbook manipulation.

After the first fallout, Person A reached out again (him reaching out at all is surprising, seeing as we are not close friends; another reason I believe it was solely for the purpose of manipulating me and pulling me to his side.) and he asked if I was available. When I told him I was mentally unavailable, as I was dealing with external stressors, he backed off, though he did attempt to reach out later on.

Beforehand, during one of our conversations, Person A tried to give themselves titles such as being Kitten's "closest" friend, judging her for being at "her worst", and trying to dictate what she could do as her own person. The first fallout had been sparked simply by deletion of a discord server-- which, in my opinion, should have never, EVER warranted the explosive response Person A employed. They made Kitten out to be a helpless person who was angry and self-destructing, when in fact, he had no idea what the truth was.

[Kitten here to verify, the first instance of explosive manipulation to my friends by Person A (but not the first I had experienced with them), was due to me deleting a Discord server when I was first attempting to cut all contact with them due to their abuse. Instead, they gaslighted me and went to my friends to tell a story of how I was "manic" or "crazed", all examples of gaslighting, when I was fully aware of what I was doing and why I was doing it. However, Person A denies any abuse and still vehemently describes me as their abuser, despite me trying to cut contact with them on and off for years because of their actions, only to be manipulated into friendship again every time.]

As a third person who initially wanted nothing to do with the events that were transpiring, I had only ever stepped in to help my friends. It was an exhausting ordeal, where Kitten saw how it was affecting me and helped me out when I was in too deep.

In the past 6+ months, I have seen copious amounts of absolutely sickening harassment from Person A's friends and acquaintances, most of which are well over the adult age. I should add that there is a chunk of Person A's fans and friends that are minors, and have been roped into this situation and used as pawns.

From where I stand as my own person, from my own views, morals, and experiences, I believe Person A, and anyone who participated on his end, is in the wrong, and I firmly stand by this.

Testimony- "Bellboy"

This is a testimony from someone who witnessed the events between Person A and I go down, and has also observed the current behavior of [redacted] and others.

In the very beginning, I had only known about Kitten & Person A through my own friends. I first was introduced to both of them in August of 2020. I presumed we all had an excellent time together. However in the short time I was introduced, something had struck me as odd: Person A's mention of Kittens "aggression." This made me afraid, as I was very new to both of them and did not want to cause any conflict. Quickly enough I learned that this was entirely false. I was soon told the whole situation from Kitten, which honestly really shattered me. Subtle put-downs and fear like this are tactics used by abusers to drive people away from their victims and ultimately isolate them. As someone who has been abused their entire childhood, this both concerned and enraged me. The fact that these tactics were used on not only Kitten but myself - someone who was entirely new to the situation - made things as clear as day. Person A was and still is undoubtedly an abuser.

After Kitten & Person A split apart, I thought that was the end of it and Kitten could finally rest easy. However, things took a huge turn when [redacted] stormed into the picture. Although I have never interacted with [redacted] I have absolutely seen their social media posts directed towards Kitten. Which are quite honestly so disgustingly prejudiced I was writhing. [redacted] has induced harassment, ignorance, and public shaming towards Kitten in a situation that should have been dropped a year ago. They are still attacking Kitten because of their own imprudence and childish behavior. Evidence of this harassment is provided in this document. I myself have even gathered some of it, granted there is quite an abundance of it from [redacted] I cannot begin to describe my unfathomable anger towards their repeated abuse. Nor can I describe the pain Kitten has endured through all of this.

To say that Kitten is an abuser herself, or to say she is a racist, or in fact, call her any derogatory words is conclusively and ridiculously moronic. Kitten has apologized for her actions in the past and has grown more than Person A, [redacted] and any of their affiliates ever have in their lives. I and many of Kitten's close friends have seen how this situation has affected her, and it has affected her catastrophically. This entire situation should have never gotten this immense. We want to put this ugly thing to rest once and for all. Kitten has never deserved this horror.

If an entire 50+ paged document is going to end it, then so be it. If someone such as I - who has barely interacted with the perpetrators and has watched everything from an outsider's view - has to come forward with what I have seen to end it, then so be it.

Testimony - "Sly"

I first interacted with Person A when they were introduced to me by Kitten around 2018. I enjoyed my company at the time with the two of them. I thought things were going well until I learned what was truly going on behind the scenes. Things went into a spiral and I was unsure of what to do at the moment. I tried hearing out from both sides, but Person A had rather kept information from me while Kitten had completely opened up to me. After learning more of Person A's actions, I could not picture myself being with them anymore.

Around the 1st week of August 2020, Person A has constantly made flirtatious comments or at least have attempted such towards me and

I have felt very uncomfortable with it, but at the time I was not quite sure of how to respond. Due to my past, I get scared to stand for myself whenever I feel uncomfortable, so I was not able to tell them to stop. They asked me if they made me uncomfortable and I was scared to anger them with my honesty, so I have said no in the past. Every time I would be in a room with Person A, I would always feel something is off and I suddenly get super tense until either they or I leave.

Moving forward towards the end of 2020 to now, Kitten has tried all they can to stop the situation, to move on peacefully, yet it has constantly evolved to the point where Kitten feels sick and it hurts to watch one of my great friends feel awful for something that could've ended a long time ago. Kitten has tried to become a better person, day in and day out. To go back to somebody's past and use it to harm them in the present and destroy their future is beyond awful and inconsiderate. It is as if Kitten was never given an opportunity to redeem and instead gets hit with insults and harassment. Kitten has been honest with everything and everyone, yet those harassing Kitten have no proof of some of the actions conducted in the past or they happen to just jump to conclusions and not know the reality of the situation.

Testimony - Jay

This is testimony from one of the people who was victim to Person A and [redacted] manipulation. They were targeted and harassed PURELY because they were my friend.

CW: Manipulation, Rape, Racism, and Lying.

For starters, I would just like to say that, during everything that was going on, Kitten and everyone on her end tried their best to keep everyone who was not involved in the situation safe. In the beginning, I was friends with both Kitten and "Person A" and I enjoyed my time around them both for the most part. Although, as more and more stuff started to spread, it was hard for me to figure out what I needed to do in order to stay in a positive mindset. There is no doubt that this has been stressful for both parties, and I decided after the incident that I would choose my friends more wisely.

I've decided that person A wasn't someone that I should be around after figuring out that they protected a rapist. The reason being was not only because that is wrong in general, but also because, as a victim of rape, I could level with how the other victim could've been feeling and how navigating through life would never be the same. That, in fact, did not sit well with me at all, and I refuse to be associated with people that even have the slightest thought that something like this was ok. So, I blocked person A.

I was roped into this once again on Sunday, February 14th, 2021 at 10:08 PM when I got a message from someone on Instagram with the username "artistblacklist". I will leave receipts of what was said.

The red blocks of text are censoring Person A's name.

You need to learn the laws of the U.S. It is allowed in certain states.
you need to learn how to stay out of shit that doesn't concern you
We know you don't care about [redacted] that is apparent. Especially since you watched Kitten sneeze manipulate the whole friend shit. She was a no one before [redacted]
She has hurt more people than [redacted] and his "friends"
i was friends with both [redacted] and Kitten, but i didn't agree with what [redacted] did and how he handled things.
please elaborate
You're a little shit. Wait until the video comes out i'm the shit 😎

(Caption from Kitten: These DMs are also cases of lies. My family member contacted Person A's mother because they were aware of what was happening and wanted to find a way to intervene to help find closure between us. There was no harassment, we agreed on no contact, and have stayed true to that ever since. I requested no contact from their friend group and have been stalked, harassed, and sent friend requests by [redacted] consistently. Also, police were NEVER threatened. When the harassment and stalking got very bad, I talked about filing a restraining order or issuing a report.)

Now, as you can see, they texted me out of nowhere bashing my friend. I already knew how stressful this situation had become for Kitten and everyone dealing with it. Especially considering that Kitten herself has been trying to drop the situation after she thought it was handled the first time. 2020 was already not a good year for anyone, and for this to be dragged into her 2021 could only cause for nothing else but stress.

And, of course, I was gonna defend my friend, as she has not done anything wrong, and personally, I believe this was a way to get to her considering that she deactivated both her Twitter and Instagram to give herself time to heal, therefore they started targeting her friends as a way to be heard, although that is just my opinion. Afterwards, I texted Person A, confronting them about the whole situation and they acted clueless which maybe they weren't aware of what was going on around them, so I explained the situation to them and I left it at that. I would provide the receipts, but we agreed to keep Person A anonymous.

Allegations: Introduction

Due to the actions of these minors and other disconnected individuals who got involved in very interpersonal business, the situation has escalated in a very intense way - all of course, in an effort to paint me in the worst light possible. They initially were making alternate accounts to force me to apologize to my abuser, harass me, stalk my fans and DM them, attempt to involve my family, or scare me into talking about this matter publicly and owning up to misinformation or skewed information.

This is why, if you have seen my Instagram and Twitters within the past few months, a few apologies on my behalf have popped up and then been deleted. This is because, out of the two times I attempted to speak out on it, the group attacking me would either attack me more and claim I was lying - like in [redacted] counter-document - or when I simply apologized despite a lot of their allegations being false, they would backtrack on accepting that apology, delete evidence of them acknowledging it, and incite more people to harass me. I did not feel comfortable speaking out on it anymore until I could come forward with the truth, disprove their claims or contextualize them, and apologize for honest things I did wrong, not lies to slander me.

For transparency, here is the original apology I posted on my Twitter:
Addressing Claims/Apology.

All of these allegation responses will be towards [redacted] and [redacted] who originally posted about the situation to call me out. I will do my best to address every single claim.

Allegation 1 - Lying about Logan/[redacted]

One of the first accusations they made against me was that I was lying about the severity of Logan and Person A's actions in an attempt to deflect Person A accusing me of being an abuser. This was covered in the "Ace_Logiboi/Logan", "Separation from Person A", and "[redacted] sections of the document - so please read them thoroughly.

As a TLDR; [redacted] actively protects Logan, who is a proven groomer and rapist. They have attacked victims involved, called them slurs, made alternate accounts to harass, spread a huge volume of lies about people involved, and even dragged family members into the situation. They also defend and associate with my abuser, Person A, who is a manipulator, liar, and groomer who consistently abuses their power to twist people against me.

Allegation 2 - Antisemitism

CW: Nazi imagery, Holocaust mention, Nazi mention

(Images won't be provided because I do not feel comfortable exposing my audience to this sort of propaganda or imagery. They can be viewed on the beware post if anyone is curious about it.)

Their claims on this matter stem back to a piece of artwork created around the year 2015/2016. I am currently 18, my birthday is August 2002. At the time of this artwork's creation, I was 13 turning 14. [redacted] accused me of lying about my age in their document, their evidence being they were cross-comparing my art with other old art I had posted - and there are MANY fallacies to this.

1) My art style CONSISTENTLY changes. However, you can clearly see that, when this art was made, I did not have high-quality drawing tools available to me because I was in the 7th grade and was either drawing with a mouse or with a very shitty tablet. The art is clearly VERY old. Cross-comparing my artwork is based on assumptions and faux-detective work.
2) From [redacted] cross-comparing, they themselves concluded the artwork looked to be made around 2016 - which only solidifies my point. I believe they had been misinformed on my age numerous times, as they must have believed I was older than I was. I was 13 turning 14 in 2016; they only proved I was telling the truth and they once again were lying.

Now to address the content of the artwork. At this period in time, I had not been educated properly on the holocaust at all; [redacted] can confirm that our school's curriculum had not taught about it since they attended the same school.

([redacted] The earliest lessons about this event were in an 8th grade English class. I believe the subject was not even in the lesson plan and only taught by my teacher BECAUSE he was Jewish and felt the need to. There is still a major issue with schools being too "afraid" to expose children to these events but as a minority, it makes me sick that it was touched on so little. My English teacher introduced us to Anne Frank's Diary and made it extra credit to read and discuss with the class. Yes, the book happened to be in the school's library so I was able to make the choice to educate myself and dig deeper. I only remember these events because, as we all know, learning of the Holocaust is terrifying. It changed how I saw humans and opened my eyes to acts of evil that can be very real. I feel ALL schools should be REQUIRED to teach these topics to young students. But, unfortunately, some aren't. I still have let Kitten know how wrong the artwork was in the past and still believe so.)

My only exposure to nazis or talk of it was through a series called Hellsing Ultimate Abridged. you can view it here:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TgnljJexut4

The artwork in question was fanart I had created of Hellsing Ultimate, under the false understanding that the nazi symbolism in the show was fictional, and they were just "evil vampires", so I had created an original character for the show.

It was never my intention to hurt or promote any hateful ideology by my actions. Although my explanation provides context, I would never ask for it to justify or excuse the behavior. Regardless of education, age, or any factors - it was still very harmful and wrong, and I am deeply sorry for anyone who was offended by my childish actions.

Person A, who contributed to the beware and lying about information, also acknowledged the date the artwork was created. They often would make jokes about it, since they knew it was out of ignorance as a child, so they'd playfully tease me about it. When we had a falling out, they suddenly changed that narrative and began insinuating it was done with malicious intent, or that I was an actual nazi. This is all untrue.

Evidence of Person A joking about the art and confirming my age through the date (2016, making me around the age of 13):

As an adult now, I am fully educated and aware of my actions. Even though this event happened 5 years ago, I do not want to seem like I am hiding from the fact it happened; I learned and grew from it. Although I was not educated on my behavior then, I am now, and I hope people will understand that I am not the person I was at 13.

I want to utilize my platform for activism, and I have for years now. I also want to bring attention to harmful media that influences children, as I was ignorant as a child and let myself be influenced by shows like Hellsing, the general climate of the internet, and offensive creators back then into thinking certain behaviors or jokes were perfectly acceptable. They are not.

If you see someone promoting harmful media, harmful ideologies, or normalizing racist/antisemiticism/homophobia/or any hate speech in any way - please call them out on it so they hopefully get educated and do better. Once again, I am very deeply sorry for contributing to the spread of antisemitism in any way, shape, and form.

Allegation 3 - Racism

(Images won't be provided because I do not feel comfortable exposing my audience to this sort of content or imagery. They can be viewed on the beware post if anyone is curious about it.)

I will provide full context for this allegation. For a few years, I was a part of a very toxic friend-group with Person A, Logan, [redacted] and a few other others (a lot of which witnessed the abuse directly and gave their testimonies anonymously). In our friend group, since we were comfortable and trusted each other, we gave each other "slur passes" to say jokes and such within a private setting. This involved my black friends giving my friends, including myself, N-word passes for jokes, me letting my friends say "Dyke", etc. Collectively, we were very ignorant to how passes should not be a thing. "Passes" should not be given around so recklessly; especially since nobody should want to say slurs anyway, and normalizing casual homophobia/racism/etc is detrimental for both parties involved.

However, after I separated from this group due to the abuse I experienced with Person A, these screenshots were passed around and cropped so only I was seen participating in these disgusting jokes, which I RARELY was the main perpetrator of - it was usually Logan and Person A's boyfriend, [redacted] They also didn't just take snippets of screenshots of me quoting other people on what THEY said, but they also would photoshop me saying slurs to make me upset, because they knew I did not approve of it.

[redacted] (who is white) even took it as far as to program me saying it into a demo video game - all without my consent. So please, be mindful of the fact that not all the screenshots are real.

For over a year now, and furthermore after cutting off this group, I have educated myself and renounced any justification of "slur passes" - I should have known better than to allow the adults in my life desensitize me to edgy, disgusting humor. However, I know that I am an independent person, even if I was a minor, I should have known better.

I want to apologize on behalf of everything I said that was offensive and hurtful during this time frame. My intention was never malicious, but it did affect people, and I am so sorry. I know that nobody is obligated to forgive me, as it is not anyone else's job to educate me. However, I am fully educated now, and deeply regret my association and contribution to these jokes.

Here is evidence of this previous friend group's behavior.

Proof of my previous friend group's behavior, condoning the jokes, and blatant racism:

Allegation 4 - Art Scamming

This allegation, in regards to my Patreon, is overwhelmingly false. No art scamming occurred, not there or ANYWHERE. This allegation stemmed from a personal falling out with a former friend, [redacted] who is now closely associated with Person A and [redacted]

I had been on and off friends with them for a while, and I began to distance myself after I was off-put by the sheer amount of drama and hostility in their friend group. They were personally hurt by this, so they began to conspire to harass me in shared servers or to make up accusations to use against me - which they admitted to.

The Patreon ordeal was due to a miscommunication and lie that they admitted to taking too far. They had been a Patron and hadn't received their reward yet, and was growing impatient and felt overlooked - which I apologized for. I explicitly do not state any deadlines or due dates when it comes to completing Patreon rewards - when my Patreon was active, I was too swamped with work to fulfill deadlines, and I made that clear, but I had completed EVERY reward for EVERY Patron I have ever had before deletion. I will only meet a deadline when I offer one.

However, in the situation with [redacted] it had been a few months, which is my fault for not communicating directly, even though they had access to all of my socials to talk to me. I did have a public Trello at this time, so it was not a secret that I was busy and working through my queue; I rarely provide updates privately which is why that link exists in the first place.

After our first falling out and when they first called me a scammer, I privately talked things out with them and did their reward that night, offering a refund too, just in case. They were satisfied with it, and we were mutuals again for quite some time, during which they apologized for attacking me. They admitted they were just hurt and wanted to hurt me back.

Proof that this was resolved privately in July 2020:

ahhhhhhh sldkajsndkln thank you man

This was the ONLY instance this occured, and after I distanced myself again due to more drama - they backtracked and started circulating the same rumors again.

If you have ever felt unsatisfied with a commission, or if you were a Patron and didn't like the rewards, CONTACT ME PRIVATELY. I am MORE than happy to reimburse any unsatisfied customers with either a refund OR an additional gift/reward.

Allegation 5 - Cyber-stalking

This is another false allegation from the post. I have never engaged in any sort of stalking activity. Their proof of my "alternate accounts" were either friends or fans; the only account that was mine was an account I have not been active on in months. I also only used it to view their public story when threats were being made against me.

It is very irresponsible to have other accounts completely disconnected from the drama tagged alongside it, as they will be the recipients of harassment for something they had no part in.

Allegation 6 -Recorded Calls

Before unpacking this incident - I would like to state ALL evidence gathered by [redacted] and their parties was done so illegally. They recorded the call that was meant to be private nonconsensually. This is a 3rd degree felony in the state I reside in, as well as theirs. Every audio file recorded nonconsensually is an additional felony, and every time it is posted is another. Every time someone shares that illegally obtained audio (with knowledge it was gained illegally) it is another felony. Here is my sources for that:

https://www.saulinelaw.com/criminal-defense-blog/2020/august/what-happens-if-you-secretly-record-a-conversati/

As [redacted] has been stating, at one point, police intervention was threatened, which is true; I did want to file a police report or a restraining order, but I never threatened police violence as a means to stop them from holding me accountable.

This was due to them cyber-stalking, harassing all my socials on multiple different alt accounts, sending me friend requests on my private socials, calling me slurs on their platforms, trying to contact my family, and overall breaching my privacy. They also took nonconsensual audio recordings (multiple felonies) of me while in a call that was meant to be private in order to handle things and move on. Nobody was informed it was being recorded at the time, we in fact all promised things wouldn't be recorded to guarantee privacy.

In this 6 minute clip, I explain the reasoning behind why I originally was going to contact legal teams to intervene.

What they didn't include was the 4 hours surrounding it, where they screamed at [redacted] boyfriend, and I, attempted to gaslight and justify the grooming scenarios with the "Romeo and Juliet law" (which does NOT apply to a 15 year old and an adult), and the aggressive accusations they wouldn't allow me to talk about because any attempt was claimed to be a lie. As it was unsafe situation, I wanted to apologize and diffuse their anger, because I knew it was not a safespace to confront them on the truth - hence why this document exists to lay out the ACTUAL truth, with evidence, so it does not get twisted by out of context clips and screenshots.

Clips of the call they're posting are completely leaving out where they screamed at me and gaslighted me until I was fawning as a response to the abuse I received and questioning my own sanity on events I know were true - they are documented. They are also leaving out when they admitted they knew I wasn't a bad person, and their apologies to me.

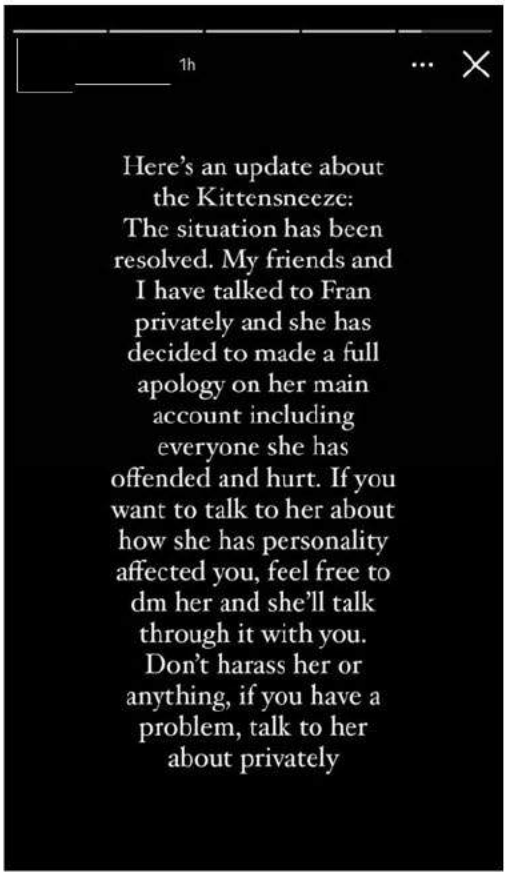
For anyone making fun of me or trying to assess if I am telling the truth or not because of my stuttering or way of speaking - that is ableism, so please be wary of that. I am neurodivergent, I am receiving therapy for c-PTSD, and I have severe social anxiety. To say that my way of speaking is indicative of my truthfulness is abhorrent and rude. I have been in speech therapy since I was a toddler, I apologize if my way of communicating is not up to societal standards.

[redacted] and their Beware

When we previously spoke, I made [redacted] aware of the misinformation in their posts, but they said they did not want to take it down because “they don’t want people to forget” - even though the points were disproven. The only revisions they made were in the description of the post, which most people don’t look through thoroughly - they willingly left up the misinformation knowing it was not true.

They had even, at one point, kept a post up acknowledging the fact that things were resolved between parties, that I had apologized for what I did wrong, and that they do not want people to attack me - however, they suddenly removed it and began inciting people to attack me once more. I still have no clue why they flipped after things were resolved in December, but because of their behavior, I took down my previous apology and set out to work on this document that allowed me to tell the full and complete truth.

[redacted] stating things had been resolved shortly before deleting everything unprompted:



1h
Here's an update about the Kittensneeze: The situation has been resolved. My friends and I have talked to Fran privately and she has decided to made a full apology on her main account including everyone she has offended and hurt. If you want to talk to her about how she has personality affected you, feel free to dm her and she'll talk through it with you. Don't harass her or anything, if you have a problem, talk to her about privately

I still stand by my original apology. However, they accused me of "excusing my behavior" by adding context. Like I stated many times, the context is important because they were spreading around misinformation and attacking me or calling me a liar when I attempted to correct it. I want to clarify the truth on EVERYTHING to give a proper apology. I want to take accountability for what I did wrong, but also hold them accountable for their behaviors too - especially in knowingly associating with a groomer/rapist.

Kitten's Final Apology/Statement

I am so sorry for the way that these past ignorant actions reached people and hurt fans and friends who looked up to me. I know that forgiveness is not something deserved, regardless of any context, and I don't want to hide or excuse any past behaviors of mine. I completely respect whoever chooses to cut ties with me due to these actions, but I am so thankful for those who do not hold my past against me and give me a chance to show my growth. I will continue using my platform for advocacy and activism. I do not want to keep a secret that I openly and strongly support Black Lives Matter (as well as the ACAB movement), the LGBTQ+ community, and other social justice movements that fight for the rights of minority groups.

My DMs will remain open to anyone who wants to discuss things, or who wants to reach out to talk about how I may have hurt them. However, if it pertains to any misinformation in this document, I will be able to clear that up with you and direct you to the proper section of the document to clear things up.

I will not be addressing this again. Every accusation they've made against me has been addressed. Any counter-documents, responses, etc. will not be acknowledged, as I know the truth is out there and the evidence is in this document to prove it. If new, different claims arise, I will be able to inform others of if it is false or not. However, as they have a tendency to tell pathological lies, I fully expect there to be an outlash from them in some way to deny what is written and documented and attempts to find me guilty for other things. However, I have said all I needed to say, and remain firm in everything addressed.

As for my abusers: I will state that I do not hate anyone, even if their actions are unforgivable or not my place to forgive. However, this is the LAST and FINAL time I will be addressing this. Absolutely everything was covered in this document, the truth is out there, and I am not hiding from what transpired.

Thank you for taking the time to read this document. I'm hoping our contribution to making people aware of the users mentioned and clearing up misinformation like this will help protect others like what we endured.
